FIRST EDITION.

TWELVE O'CLOCK M.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 2, 1868.

SENATE.

Mr. SUMNER, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported a communication relative to exclusive privileges in the fisheries of Alaska, and asked its reference to the Committee on Territories.

At Mr. SUMNER'S instance the Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the resolution relative to the security of American citizens in Palestine, for sending grain to the starving population in Sweden, the protest against recognizing the Ottoman Empire as a lawful Government, the Motley correspondence, and that concerning the participation by our Consul in the recent Italian troubles.

In answer to a question, Mr. SUMNER said the House bill for the protection of the rights of naturalized citizens abroad would be the subject of consideration at the next meeting of the Committee.

Mr. TRUMBULL, from the Judiciary Committee, reported, with amendments, a bill for representation in Congress of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida. At his instance another bill on the subject was indefinitely postponed.

On motion of Mr. SHERMAN, the Foreign Committee was discharged from the further consideration of the resolution to allow Mr. Burlingame to accept a mission from a foreign government. Not being in the service of the United States, he is at liberty to enter into any service he chooses.

Mr. HENDRICKS called up the bill to confirm the title of certain lands in Nebraska, which passed.

Mr. SHERMAN called up the supplemental National Currency act.

Mr. CAMERON moved its postponement, which was supported by other Senators, but

Mr. SHERMAN proceeded to discuss the bill, urging its importance as correcting certain abuses, and explaining the amendment previously reported from the Committee.

The bill was then postponed—21 to 18.

Mr. EDMONDS called up the bill providing for appeals to Court of Claims, which was materially amended, by providing for the appointment of two Assistant Attorney Generals at salaries of $4,000, by abolishing Solicitors and Deputy Solicitors of the Court of Claims, by authorizing heads of Departments to send claims of over $3,000 to the Court of Claims at discretion, and forbidding the prosecution of any claim in the Court of Claims or any process in regard to which may be pending in another court. It passed after sharp opposition from Messrs. Hendricks and Buckalew.

On motion of Mr. WILSON, the bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau for one year from July 16th was taken up and slightly amended, when it was postponed till to-morrow.

Mr. YATES called up the bill to provide a temporary government for the territory of Wyoming, but at the instance of Mr. MORRILL, Me., it was temporarily laid aside to allow him to call up the bill to supply deficiencies in appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 18, 1868.

Several amendments reported from the Committee on Appropriations were inserted, including the following: To supply the deficiencies of the appropriation for expenses of collecting revenue from customs for the half year ending July 30, 1868, $1,800,000.

Mr. HOWE strenuously opposed this amendment, and condemned the Secretary of the Treasury's lengthy explanation of it, which was read at the instance of Mr. Morrill, of Maine.

His motion to strike it out, however, failed, and the bill passed, and goes to the House for concurrence.

At four o'clock Mr. CONNESS moved to go into executive session.

Mr. HENDRICKS, by permission, presented a petition from citizens of Indiana asking a change in the system of collecting revenue on cigars. Referred to Committee on Finance.

The motion to go into executive session prevailed, and after a session of upwards of an hour, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. KELLEY presented a petition from Henry C. Semple, charging Hon. Richard Busteed, United States District Judge of Alabama, with official incompetency and corruption, and praying an investigation of the charge be ordered. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

Mr. HILL, from Post office Committee, reported back with amendments a bill to provide for a line of mail and emigrant passenger steamships between New York and one or more European ports. Ordered to be printed and recommitted.

Mr. GARFIELD introduced a bill to restore the Bureau of Indian Affairs to the War Department. Referred to Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. MILLS offered a resolution requesting the President to inform the House whether any assurances were made to induce John C. Breckenridge to return to this country. Adopted.

Mr. UPSON presented a minority report in the Kentucky contested election case of McKee against Young.

Mr. WASHBURNE, Wis., introduced a joint resolution relating to Confederate property in foreign countries. Referred to Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. PALESLY introduced a joint resolution for the transfer of the suit concerning the Harper's Ferry property from the State Court to the Circuit Court of West Virginia. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

Mr. SCOFIELD called up the Ohio contested election case of Delano against Morgan, in which the Committee reports a resolution that Mr. Morgan, sitting member, is not entitled to a seat, and Mr. Delano, contestant, is. He defended the report of the Committee.

The case in favor of the sitting member was presented by Mr. KERR, of the minority of the Committee, who occupied two hours and a quarter in an argument in its support.

He was succeeded by Mr. LAWRENCE, of Ohio, who supported the claim of the contestant.

The debate was continued by Mr. WOODWARD, on behalf of the sitting member, and by the sitting member himself.

Without taking a vote the House adjourned.

Session of Superintendents of Insane.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, June 2.—Medical Superintendents of American Institutions for the Insane began their 22d annual session to-day. Superintendents of asylums from different parts of the country are present. The project for a general law for determining legal relations and their commital to asylums was considered and a draft of such a law is to be perfected.

For Professor of Seminary of the Northwest, Chicago, Rev. Wm. M. Blackburn.

In the Presbyterian General Assembly this evening the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That Presbyteries be directed to use as fully as possible, in supplying vacancies, unsettled ministers under their care.

Rev. Dr. Reed, from the Committee to visit Harrisburg, said the Committee were received with great cordiality; that the dispatch from this body announcing a change in the first article of the Basis of Union was not understood, but when properly explained they were at once ready to acquiesce. However, as some of the members were absent, there was not the requisite constitutional number, two-thirds, to ratify the change in the Basis.

The Assembly then adjourned till the third Thursday in May next, to meet in Dr. Spring's Church in New York.

National Board of Trade Meeting.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—A meeting of the National Board of Trade will commence in this city to-morrow evening. The sessions will be held in the Academy of Music, and will probably be continued for several days. The most ample provisions have been made for the entertainment of delegates. Business will be transacted during the mornings, and in the afternoons visitors will be escorted to various places of interest about the city. To-morrow afternoon they visit Fairmount Park. Friday evening there will be a grand banquet at the Academy of Music, given by the city. On Saturday a trip will be made along the Delaware and to League Island, and in the early part of next week an excursion through the coal region will take place.

Memphis Items.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, June 2.—An incendiary fire last night destroyed Hicks & Smith's livery stable, Jefferson street. Loss, $3,000; no insurance.

A negro girl in South Memphis attempted to poison her father's family on Sunday by putting powdered glass in a pot of vegetables while they were at church. Being detected, she acknowledged the crime, and gives as a reason for it that her father refused to allow her to join the Methodist Church, he being a Baptist.

THE CAPITAL.

The War Department—Chinese Embassy—Southern States and the Electoral College—Another Indian Treaty—The Indian Bureau—Stanbery Rejected.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 2, 1868.

CALLS AT WAR DEPARTMENT.

Major Gen. Hancock and staff, Brevet Brig. Gen. Emory and staff, and House Committee on Military Affairs, called at the War Department to-day and paid their respects to Gen. Schofield.

BECOME A LAW.

The President to-day informed the House that the ten days constitutional limit having expired, the bill to make appropriations to supply deficiencies for the execution of reconstruction, had become a law without his signature.

RESULT OF ELECTION.

The official vote elects Bowen, Republican, Mayor by seventy-four majority. The Council on joint ballot shows a Conservative majority of three.

CONSUL NOMINATION.

The President has nominated to the Senate Robt. L. Matthews, of Indiana, Consul at Naples.

THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

At the War Department this morning the usual routine business was transacted. The guards which had been stationed around the building were not placed on duty, Gen. Schofield having yesterday ordered their removal. Gen. Schofield attended the Cabinet meeting this morning, at which all the other members were present.

CHINESE EMBASSY.

Hon. Anson Burlingame, with the members of the Chinese embassy, called at the State Department this morning and had an interview with Secretary Seward.

INDIAN TREATY CONCLUDED.

The following communication has been received at the Indian Department:

CHEYENNE, DACOTA, June 1, 1868.

Hon. N. G. Taylor, Commissioner of Indian Affairs: We concluded a treaty with the Ogallallas on the 25th instant. Thirty-six chiefs, and leading warriors, including those of Red Cloud's band, signed the treaty. Seventeen Minecougon chiefs and warriors also signed. I now think there will be no fear of difficulty.

SOUTHERN STATES AND THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

The following is the text of the resolution offered in the Senate to-day to exclude from the electoral college the votes of certain Southern States: That the States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas, respectively, shall not be admitted to representation in the electoral college for President and Vice President of the United States, and no electoral votes shall be served or counted from any of such respective States, unless at the time prescribed by law for the choice of electors the people of such respective States shall, pursuant to acts of Congress in that behalf, have, since the 4th day of March, 1867, adopted a constitution of State government under which a State government shall have been organized and shall be in peaceful operation, and such State shall also have become entitled to representation in Congress pursuant to acts of Congress in that behalf.

STANBERY NOT CONFIRMED.

The Senate this afternoon, after a debate rejected the re-nomination of Hon. Henry Stanbery as Attorney General. It is understood his re-appointment to that office was opposed by Senators principally on the ground of his hostility to the reconstruction acts.

THE INDIANS.

Following telegram was received to-day:

North Platte, Nebraska, June 1, 1868. To Chas. E. Mix, acting Commissioner Indian affairs: Just in from Laramie. There are some chiefs here to sign the treaty. There have been no depredations on the road for the last four weeks, and we think all will remain quiet now on this line.

[Signed] JOHN B. SANBORN,
President of the Indian Peace Commision.

EX-PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.

The President has issued the following: "The President with deep regret announces to the people of the United States the decease, at Wheatland, Pennsylvania, on the 1st inst., of his honored predecessor, James Buchanan. This event will occasion mourning in the nation for the loss of an eminent citizen and honored public servant. As a mark of respect for his memory, it is ordered that the Executive Department be immediately placed in mourning and all business be suspended on the day of the funeral. It is further ordered that the War and Navy Departments cause suitable military and naval honors to be paid on this occasion to the memory of the illustrious dead.

[Signed.] ANDREW JOHNSON.

THE INDIAN BUREAU, &c.

The House Military Committee this morning authorized General Logan to report a bill transferring the Indian Bureau to the War Department Committee. It also agreed to report a bill continuing the thirty-three per cent. increase of pay to officers of the army; also a bill to pay non-commissioned officers, who were commissioned, but not mustered into service, during the war; also, a bill to construct a bridge across the Missouri river at Fort Leavenworth for military purposes.

FLORIDA CONSTITUTION.

The Reconstruction Committee met this morning for the purpose of taking up the Florida Constitution, but there not being a full attendance nothing was done.

CANADA.

Preparations for the Fenians.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

OTTAWA, June 2.—Military preparations for the anticipated Fenian raid are complete. A full brigade has been formed in the several districts, composed of regulars and volunteers, having attached to each a battery of artillery and troop of cavalry. There will be a considerable reserve of regulars and volunteers, should the brigades already formed not be sufficient to meet the emergency.

TORONTO, June 2.—The field brigade, composed of regulars and volunteers in Toronto, has been placed in a high state of efficiency. Four guns of the Royal Artillery, stationed here, left this afternoon for Prescott.

MONTREAL, June 2.—A provisional battalion, under Maj. Brown, of the 100th Regiment, is to be formed at Chambly for full practice.

BY CUBAN CABLE.

Troubles of St. Domingo—U. S. Steamer Ashore, &c. &c.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, June 2.—General Luperon, of St. Domingo, issued a proclamation on the 15th ult., against President Baez. The adherents of ex-President Cabral, in the southern portion of St. Domingo, have also taken the field to the number of 3,000 men, and are acting jointly with Luperon against Baez, whose position is considered very insecure.

A report reached St. Thomas from the United States that the American Congress had rejected the treaty for the purchase of the Island. The news caused great excitement, but business is improving.

The United States steamer Comstock, flag ship of the American squadron, ran ashore while entering the harbor at Point Apetier, Guadaloupe, and was leaking badly. Two French vessels were alongside but their assistance was ineffectual. The pilot was arrested but released next day, the blame being laid on the commander of the Comstock for carrying too much steam against the pilot's orders.

Commissioners have left Hayti for Europe to tender the Presidency to General Solomon.

Reports in regard to President Solnave are contradictory. Some say he has left the country and others that he remains and is preparing for another battle with the insurgents. Still another says he has been assassinated by his own troops.

Dates from Caracacs to 11th of May are received. Gen. Rojeau, at the head of the revolutionists, had entered Caracacs. The officers and partisans of the government, fearing treachery, subsequently fled from the city, and large numbers joined General Managhas. The fighting was not ended and much bloodshed was expected. Gen. Falcon had escaped to the Dutch Island of Oriba.

RICHMOND, VA.

The New District Commander—Chief Justice Chase—Jeff. Davis Trial.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RICHMOND, June 2.—Gen. Stoneman has issued an order taking command of the First Military District. He directs all orders heretofore issued to be strictly observed, and all military and civil officers to continue in the performance of their duties.

Chief Justice Chase arrived to-day and is the guest of Judge Bond. He will preside to-morrow and probably remain until after the trial of some important cases. The Davis trial will be postponed till October, by agreement, as already stated, of counsel. Among the witnesses summoned in the case are Generals Hartranft, Wilcox and Sharp, of the Union, and Generals Fitz Lee, Cooper and Gordon, of the Confederate army. Burton N. Harrison, private Secretary of Mr. Davis, is also on the witness list.

New York City Matters.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 2.—The Grand Lodge of Free Masons of the United States commenced its session to-day.

Mayor Hoffman, in a message to Common Council, announced the death of Jas. Buchanan. Appropriate resolutions were adopted, and a committee appointed to attend the funeral.

In the German Catholic Union to-day Pontificial High Mass was celebrated by Archbishop M'Closkey, who also made an address to the Convention. Business commenced this afternoon.

The Rock Island case was again before the Supreme Court to-day, and an argument was made on the appeal from the order appointing a receiver for the 49,000 shares of stock issued some months ago. The Court reserved its decision.

The bark Agnes, from Bremen, had fifteen deaths on her passage, eight from small pox, and has now twenty-one cases of that disease aboard. The vessel is detained at quarantine.

Three men, named Bennett O'Neill, John O'Neill and John Ferrigan, have been arrested charged with the murder of Richard Benter, in Brooklyn, last month.

Several distilleries were seized to-day for violations of the internal revenue law.

Severe Storm in Missouri.

[By Telegraph to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, June 2.—The storm of yesterday afternoon did considerable damage in the surrounding country. At Kirkwood, fifteen miles from here, a large brick hotel in course of construction was blown down and almost completely demolished. Other localities also suffered, and much damage was done to the early fruit by hail. Another heavy wind storm passed over this region early this evening, and thunder and lightning and considerable rain prevailed. Since eight o'clock the wind is blowing very strong again. Myriads of locusts have come out of the ground in this county, but no serious damage has yet been done.

California News.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—Reports from the grain crops are remarkably favorable. A rain storm yesterday may do some damage to the hay.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company are negotiating for the reduction of freight and passenger charges on the portion of the road operating in California.

Arizona advices speak very favorably of mining operations generally. No Indian troubles are reported.

Waterspout in Maryland.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ROCKLAND, Md., June 2.—During a rain storm last Friday, a waterspout swept down Moody's Mountain, in Kape township, Knox county, cutting three ravines down the side of the mountain, one of them four rods wide and eight feet deep, also uprooting in its course trees ten inches in diameter, and raising Lincolnville pond in one night three feet higher than ever known.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Fourth Annual Convention of Sunday School Teachers.

The Fourth Annual Convention of the Sunday School Teachers of Pennsylvania commenced yesterday afternoon in the Second Presbyterian Church, (Dr. Howard's,) corner of Penn and Irwin streets, Pittsburgh. The attendance was quite large, and the session promises to be both an interesting and profitable one.

At 2½ o'clock the Convention was called to order, Rev F. A, Noble, Chairman.

After the singing of the Coronation hymn, comencing

"All Hail the power of Jesus name,"

the Chairman read a portion of the 1st and 2nd chapters of the Acts of the Apostles, and the Rev. Mr. McMillan invoked the Divine blessing upon the assembly.

On motion of Rev. Scovel the following gentlemen were appointed a Committee on permanent organization: Major Wm. Frew, U. P. Church; Rev. Squires, Squires Cumberland Presbyterian Church; Rev. Young, Union Baptist Church; Rev. J. C. High, Methodist Episcopal Church.

While the Committee were preparing their report, in the absence of Dr. L. F. Morgan, who had been appointed for the occasion, Rev. S. Burt was called upon to deliver the address of welcome. The reverend gentleman, in behalf of the Pittsburgh Sunday School workers, extended their fraternal greetings to the delegates to the Convention, spoke of the importance of the cause in which they were engaged, and hoped that this gathering might be of lasting benefit to all who were privileged to attend.

Mr. Frew then announced the following list of officers for permanent organization:

President—Rev. Gus A. Peltz, Baptist, Philadelahia.

Vice Presidents—Robert C. Cornelius, O. S. Presbyterian, Philadelphia; Edward Kummer, Morovaian, Bethlehem; Rev. J. C. McClelland, Cumberland Presbyterian, Armstrong county, Penn.; Prof. A. D. Clarke, U. P. Church, Allegheny; Rev. H. C. Beacon, Methodist, Berrysville.

Secretaries—J. Newton Baker, Philadelphia, David Robinson, Pittsburgh, Rev. F. H. Wilkinson, Mansfield.

Mr. Peltz on taking the chair made a few appropriate remarks, and on motion of Rev. Alfred Taylor, appointed a committee to secure the names of delegates.

The first topic for discussion, "New work in Mission Schools," was then taken up and was opened by Rev. Taylor, followed in short practical speeches of five minutes length by quite a number of delegates, at the close of which the Convention adjourned its afternoon session.

EVENING SESSION.

The Convention was called to order at a quarter to eight o'clock. Rev. Peltz in the Chair.

After spending a short time in devotional exercises Rev. Alfred Taylor, Secretary of the Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association, read his annual report, an interesting and valuable document to every Sunday School worker. He stated that the association was organized in 1847, in Philadelphia. Immediately after its organization circulars explaining the work were served throughout Pennsylvania. Its object was to stimulate activity in the Sunday School work throughout the State, and make it the leading State of the Union in this matter. During the past year there seemed to be a decided advance in the Sunday School work. There was a great demand for conventions and we had now associations in twenty-five of the sixty-six counties, which is quite an encouraging statement of the work. The report then gave some very interesting statistics of the particular work throughout the State, during the year, showing the number of associations organized in each county, the number of schools and the general progress of the work. From it we learn that, outside of Philadelphia, Allegheny takes the lead in Sunday School matters. In closing his report the Secretary hoped that God's richest blessing might rest in the future as in the past upon the Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association.

At the conclusion of the report the chairman alluded in a few very feeling and touching remarks to the death of Matthew Newkirk, of Philadelphia, of whom mention had been made, and was followed by Revs. Scovel and Cummings, who referred eloquently to the life and labors of this great Sunday School worker, at the close of which, on motion of Rev. Wylie, a Committee of Seven, with J. Newton Baker as chairman, was appointed to draft resolutions as a tribute of respect to his memory.

The Chairman announced that the time allotted to ten minutes speeches had arrived, and called successively upon Mr. Cumings, of Philadelphia, and Chapman Little, Esq., who entertained the audience for a time with speeches full of practical suggestions to Sunday school workers.

After singing and prayer the Convention adjourned to meet again at 9 o'clock this morning.

Pennsylvania Sunday School Convention.

A golden opportunity is now presented to the Sunday School teachers of Pittsburgh for great personal improvement in their Sunday School labors. Earnest Sunday School workers from all parts of the State are present now in our city. The meetings promise to be intensely interesting, and all the new and best plans for Sunday School instruction will be developed, and no Sunday School teacher can afford to absent himself or herself from this meeting. From the appearance of the meeting on Tuesday afternoon not many of the teachers of our city were present. Are they going to let this opportunity pass by without taking advantage of it. Let a fellow-teacher who has felt himself benefitted by similar meetings urge you to attend and you will never regret it. C.

Serious Accident.—Harry Brown, a boy about five years of age, whose parents reside on North avenue, Allegheny, was severely injured yesterday while playing in McBrier's board yard. It appears that a load of boards had been piled in one tier to a considerable heighth, and while the boy was standing near them in a stooping position they fell upon him, crushing him to the ground. His cries were heard by the workmen in the yard, who extricated him as soon as posible, and conveyed him to his home. His injuries, although severe, are not thought to be dangerous.

Base Ball.—The game of base ball between the Athletic club, of Philadelphia, and the Allegheny, of Allegheny city, which came off yesterday in Union Park, was a closely contested and unusually exciting one. The playing was good throughout. The fielding of the Allegheny was fully as good, if not superior, to that of the Athletic, but the latter excelled them at the bat. At the close of the game the score stood eighteen to twenty-seven, the Philadelphians being the victors.

Allegheny Board of Controllers.

A regular monthly meeting of the Allegheny Board of Controll was held Tuesday evening, June 2d, at 7¾ o'clock, in the Common Council Chamber. The Chairman being absent the meeting was called to order by Mr. Brown, on whose motion Mr. Loomis was called to the chair.

The Secretary called the roll and the following gentlemen answered to their names: Messrs. Barr, Brown, John jr., Brown, Jno. K., Boyle, Borland, Crowther, Dunlap, Eaton, Francis, Groward, Kollock, Kimball, King, Loomis, Lea, Lockhart, Mussler, Pitcairn, Swift, Shea and Thorn.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

The reports of the visiting Committees of the several wards were called for, read and adopted.

Mr. Kollock from Committee on evening schools, read the report of the Committee, from which it appears that there are 1,079 pupils enrolled, 847 males and 232 females. Total amount paid teachers for the month $1,495. A resolution accompanied the report providing that children under twelve years should not be admitted to the night schools.

A motion to amend by substituting ten instead of twelve was lost.

The report was then adopted.

Mr. Swift, Chairman of the Special Committee on Rules, submitted a partial report in which the Committee provides for the appointment of the usual Committees, and define their duties.

The report was received and the Committee continued.

On motion of Mr. Francis the report was then taken up and adopted.

Mr. Eaton moved that the Committee on Colored Schools be authorized to purchase a melodeon for the use of the colored school, at a cost of twenty dollars.

Mr. Rea moved that the matter be referred to the Committee on Colored Schools with power to act. Adopted.

Mr. Francis read a communication from James Fell, residing in the Eighth ward, asking permission to send his children to the Fourth ward schools. Referred to the Local Board of the Fourth ward.

Mr. Kollock moved that the schools close on the last Friday in June and continue closed nine weeks. Adopted.

A bill of J. Hopkins & Co. for coal furnished to the colored schools, amounting to $5,50, was presented and ordered to be paid.

On motion adjourned.

Assault and Battery.

Julia Wolfort made information before Alderman McMasters yesterday, charging John Barr with assault and battery. It appears that John had a fondness for Julia, which for a time was reciprocal, but recently she has slighted him and has been receiving the attentions of another young man. Sunday evening as John was passing down Fulton street he observed Julia and his rival seated in the door of the Eagle Hotel, where she is employed as a domestic. The sight maddened him, and in a few minutes he returned to seek revenge upon his rival and the fickle Julia. When opposite the door he stopped and, with a fiendish smile upon his ghastly face, looked upon the apparently happy pair. This was too much for him. His wounded pride and betrayed affection called for vengeance, and thrusting his hand beneath his coat drew forth—not a pistol—but a live cat, which, seizing by the tail, he hurled with the power of a Hercules at his rival. In consequence of his anger and excitement his aim was unsteady, and instead of striking the hated cause of all his misery, his rival, the fair Julia received the force of the blow. These facts having been fully established before the Alderman, he held the offender to bail for his appearance at court.

Personal.—Hon. James Riddle, of Wilmington, Delaware, who was the Union Republican candidate for Governor of Delaware at the last Gubernatorial canvass, arrived from Chicago yesterday en route for his home in the East. He is stopping at the Union Depot Hotel. This stauch old Republican has great influence in that little State, and he is hopeful that ere long it will be redeemed from Copperhead rule.

City Superintendent.—George J. Luckey, City Superintendent, received his commission yesterday, and will enter immediately upon the duties of his office. His office will be in the rooms occupied by the Central High School, corner of Wood and Sixth street.

ST. THOMAS.

A GEOGRAPHICAL SURVEY.

Very fair and full of promise
Lay the Island of St. Thomas;
Ocean o'er its reefs and bars
Hid its elemental scars:
Groves of cocoanut and guava
Grew above its fields of lava.
So the gem of the Antilles—
"Isles of Eden," where no ill is—
Like a great green turtle slumbered
On the sea that it encumbered.

Then said William Henry Seward
As he cast his eye to leeward:
"Quite important to our commerce
Is this island of St. Thomas."

Said the Mountain ranges, "Thank'ee,
But we cannot stand the Yankee
O'er our scars and fissures poring,
In our very vitals boring,
In our sacred caverns prying,
All our secret problems frying—
Digging, blasting, with dynamit
Mocking all our thunders! D— it!
Other lands may be more civil,
Bust our lava crust if we will!"

Said the sea—its white teeth gnashing
O'er its coral-reef lips flashing:
"Shall I let this scheming mortal
Shut with stone my shining portal,
Curb my tide and check my play,
Fence with wharves my shining bay?
Rather let me be drawn out
In one awful water-spout!"

Said the black-browed Hurricane
Brooding o'er the Spanish main:
"Shall I see my forces, zounds!
Measured by square inch and pounds,
With detectives at my back
When I double on my track,
And my secret paths made clear,
Published o'er the hemisphere
To each gaping, prying crew?
Shall I? Blow me if I do!"

So the mountains shook and thundered,
And the hurricane came sweeping,
And the people looked and wondered
As the sea came on them leaping:
Each, according to his promise,
Made things lively at St. Thomas.

Till one morning, when Bill Seward
Cast his weather eye to Leeward,
There was not an inch of dry land
Left to mark his recent island,
Not a flag-staff or a sentry,
Not a wharf or port of entry—
Only—to cut matters shorter—
Just a patch of muddy water,
In the open ocean lying,
And a gull above it flying.

—Three hundred more Canadian Zouaves have started on their journey to Rome.

—One of Bismarck's poor relations, also named Bismarck, is in gaol at Chicago.

—The Boston Post calls country board the lumber market, and says it is high.

—The bronze statue of Shakespeare for Central Park is to be modeled by J. Q. A. Ward.

—Springfield, Mass., has a Doctress of Medicine, who is a graduate of two colleges.

—A new census of the city of Baltimore is to be taken, and a re-division into wards is to take place.

—The Weeping Baptist is the latest of those pious fungi so prevalent about revival times in England.

—The Haytien paper dollar is only worth about two cents in silver. Solnave's reverses are the cause.

—Those little foreigners, the sparrows, are being killed by the cold, wet weather in the New York parks.

—A Petersburg, Va., paper calls Gen. R. E. Lee, "the pride of the world." That pride has had a woeful fall.

—The fare from Boston to New York is $1. It used to be $10. Unlimited competion has made the difference.

—Strawberries will be very plenty in about two weeks. It is thought the season will be at its height about the 17th inst.

—There is a man in Delaware who has had fifty-one children and three wives. One of the latter and thirty of the former are still living.

—Thirty farmers in Green Lake county, Wis., organized a gopher hunt last week, and succeeded in depriving 2,221 gophers of their lives.

—The people of Hartford like to encourage American talent; they should all be good protectionists for Booth took in $500 more than did Ristori.

—Walter Brown, unable to find any single man who has confidence enough in him to row with him, has issued a challenge to the world at large.

—Edmund G. Ross, the recreant Senator from Kansas, is very slight, weighs one hundred and thirty pounds, has light brown hair and smooth brown beard.

—Rumor says that Mr. Greely has become so thoroughly a Grant man that he has taken to smoking, that is, to use the words of the eminent journalist, to "making a hog of himself."

—The Yale Courant wishes each student who graduated under the late President Day to contribute one dollar to erect a suitable monument to him on the college grounds.

—New buildings are going up all over the city, and it is not an unpleasant sight; and when we think that sometime before next winter Fifth street may probably be paved, we are pleased with the evidences of municipal improvement.

—A funny man in Boston has seen the Chinese embassy and declares that one of the Mandarins, having been unfortunate with his hair, is about to make arrangements with Sylvanus Cobb to have his tail continued in the New York Ledger.

—John C. Vogel, of St. Louis, returns an income of $46,695, and ten years ago he swept out the post office. U. S. Grant was once a tanner, but in less than a year we hope he will have swept out a great many post offices which stand sadly in need of cleansing.

—Sir Robert Napier's rewards in toto for the Abyssinian victory are an annuity of £1,000 in gold, the rank of Commander in the order of the Bath, the freedom of the city of London and a sword worth £2,000, which is more than some of our Generals received, who fought harder and won grander victories, but it is not a tithe of what he would have received had he been a Grosvenor, a Cavendish, or a member of any other powerful family.

—The Germans had a delightful pic nic in Chicago on Sunday. Music, singing and dancing alternated with the athletic performances of the agile Turners. The affair passed off pleasantly and quite a handsome sum was raised to assist in defraying the expenses of the great Saenger Fest, which is to come.

—Persons perusing the remarks of the New York World on the Republican candidate for President would do well to remember what that paper said of him some time ago: "He has within him every manly quality, which will cause the name of Lieutenant General Grant to live forever in history."

THE WASHBURNE AND DONNELLY WAR.

WILKINSBURG, May 29, 1868.

EDITOR OF THE GAZETTE—SIR:—As the dispute between Congressmen Washburne and Connelly has assumed a national interest, some facts, not generally known, may not be out of place in your columns.

When Minnesota was a Territory it was under the exclusive control of the Buchanan Democracy. In her first election, as a State Ramsay, the Republican candidate for Governor, was defeated by the votes of Indians in breech-cloths and blankets, and by returns from election precincts where nobody lived. At the second, the Republicans rallied, and the two parties came together in the fiercest political rencounter I ever saw. The Democrats brought out their strongest men as candidates, and had all the aid the party in power could give. For Lieutenant Governor they nominated General S. B. Lowrie, a Southern gentleman of great wealth and such personal popularity that he had been generally regarded as political dictator of the Territory from its first organization. An Indian trader and interpreter, a mail contractor and President of the Claim Club, who drove out of the country whomsoever they would, he would never condescend to represent the Territory as Delegate at Washington, but sent some subordinate, while he controlled matters at home. To oppose him the Republicans nominated Mr. Donnelly, an Irish lawyer who had distinguished himself by his eloquent appeals to his countrymen, in favor of human freedom. It was a most hotly contested election. Schurz, Colfax and Grow stumped the State; but none did better service than Donnelly, who is a most logical and cunning reasoner, in addition to the usual qualities of a capital stump speaker. The Republicans now triumphed; and the Democrats were so completely beaten that there can be no good reason to fear a Democratic majority in the North Star State, at any time in this century. Donnelly ran ahead of his ticket although these very charges which Mr. Washburne now makes, were then made, and reiterated in every Democratic paper, in handbills, and circulars, and public speeches, and scattered broadcast all over the State. I was perfectly familiar with them, and considered them triumphantly disposed of long before the people rendered their verdict.

When the Republicans took charge of the Government the State finances were in a deplorable condition. The people re-elected every State officer by increased majorities at the end of their first term; there certainly had been, and continued to be, a vast improvement in the State credit.

When Mr. Lincoln was first elected, there was a very thorough canvass of the State; leading Republicans calculated, in case of his election, that the patronage of the general government would be given to those who labored for that consummation. There were several contestants for the Surveyor Generalship; but the people, in the northern district, expected it to be given to Stephen Miller, who has since been Brigadier General and Governor of the State. He had been a delegate to the Chicago Convention, and chairman of the Electoral Ticket, had canvassed the State, is an effective public speaker, had contributed liberally in money to defray expenses, was thought to have a claim second to none, to the best appointment the party could give. Col. Aldrich, the Congressional reputation commended by Mr. Washburne, acknowledged that claim. I myself saw his written pledges to secure the appointment for Mr. Miller. There were two other prominent aspirants, whose names I have forgotten, but whose claims are strong.

When the appointment was announced there was much such a sensation as when Mr. Pierce was nominated for President. The question then was "Who is Frank Pierce?" Now it was, "Who is Washburne?" "Washburne! Washburne!!" Men would cogitate, "Where did he come from?"

In explanation of his broken pledges, Colonel Aldrich states that the Washburnes in Congress had demanded this position for the Washburne who was not in Congress; and that it was impossible to ignore their influence. As their interference in Minnesota affairs was thus clearly indicated it is, perhaps, not unfair to infer that to it the Republicans of that State were indebted to such a distribution of Government patronage, under Mr. Lincoln, as well nigh disorganized the party. Nothing but the most exalted patriotism could have induced the people to continue to uphold a party which conferred its favors on its drones, or most active enemies; as, for instance, appointing the two Breckenridge Land Officers of St. Cloud, Minn., to Paymasterships, over a dozen Republican applicants.

This General Washburne who is to supplant Mr. Donnelly got his title from this appointment, and was in Minnesota making money out of the Government sinecure, during all the time of the war; for, there was no emigration to the State in those years. She had about as much use for a Surveyor General as a cart for a third wheel.

That Mr. Washburne should so forget the dignity of his position as to repeat, in writing, and republish these old Democratic falsehoods, after their repeated public refutation, is strange, but is quite in keeping with a plot to oust a true, working Republican, and give his place to a man who has neither ability or inclination to do anything for his party or country, but sign receipts for money received. No wonder Mr. Donnelly lost his temper, hot-headed and warm-hearted Irishman as he is, and said things that ought not to have been said before ladies. The pioneer Republicans of Minnesota are naturally impatient at the name of this young barnacle, who was made fast to her Ship of State by the elder barnacles, and who is now sent to supplant one of her working members.

I do not know that Mr. Donnelly is incorruptible, but he is always sober, is a good husband and father, never gets ladies of doubtful character appointed to clerkships, is a hard-worker, and has always voted right on great questions. To cast him aside for a barnacle like Gen. Washburne would be enough to discourage all earnest, working men. Mr. Donnelly is a young man yet, but has stood in the front of Freedom's battle for fifteen years, and in times when victory promised to perch on her enemy's standard.

Financial Matters in New York.

Gold Closed at 140@140¼.

By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW YORK, June 2, 1868.

MONEY AND GOLD.

Money is very easy at 3@5 per cent. for call loans. Prime paper is wanted at 5½@6½. The offering of money by banks is largely in excess of the demand. Sterling is firm at 10½@10¼. Gold is firmer, closing at 140@140¼. Loans made early at 1@1½ per cent. for carrying, but later at 1-64@2 per cent. for borrowing, closing flat. The shipment to-day is $600,000. The shipment to-morrow is anticipated will be nearly two millions.

GOVERNMENTS.

Governments ¼@½ lower, closing very heavy at the last call, but subsequently there was more disposition to purchase on the street. Henry Clews & Co. furnish the annexed 4:30 quotations: Coupons, '81, 116¾@116½; do. '62, 112¼@112¾; do. '64, 110½@110¾; do. '65, 110¾@110½; do. new, 113@113¼; do. '67, 113¼@113½; 10-40's, 105¾@105⅞; 7-30s, 109½@109⅝.

RAILWAY MARKET

Opened buoyant and higher, but under realizations there was a heavy fall in prices, in some instances fully 2 per cent. The market recovered somewhat at the close, but was generally dull. Border State bonds active and higher. Miscellaneous list dull.

RIVER NEWS.

Both rivers continue to recede steadily at this point with seven feet in the Monongahela, and about eight in the Allegheny. The weather yesterday was cloudy and sultry, and at times there was every appearance of rain. Business is moderately active, though there is an abundance of room for improvement.

The steamer Sallie has arrived at Fort Benton, making the quickest time this season by six days. Her time from St. Louis to Fort Benton was about forty-five days, and the most remarkable thing connected with her trip, is the fact that she never had to break bulk.

The Julia No. 2 departed for Zanesville last evening with an average trip.

Com. W. J. Kountz left for Omaha on Monday night to look after the Leni Leoti, which boat is reported as having sprung a leak, and at last accounts was in a disabled condition. We understand, however, that she sustained no serious damage, and once he gets to her, Com. K. will soon have her under way again, all right.

The Kate Robinson arrived from St. Louis on Monday evening, with a very good trip. The Wild Duck and Glendale, from the same point, were due last night.

The Leonidas cleared for St. Louis yesterday afternoon with a pretty good trip of freight.

The Bayard arrived and departed for Parkersburg, and the Grey Eagle, Captain Brennan, is the regular packet for Parkersburg to-day, leaving promptly at noon.

The J. N. McCullough is due from Cincinnati this afternoon, and will return as usual to-morrow at 12 o'clock.

The America, Captain Adam Poe, is now in turn for St. Louis, and will be the first regular packet out for that point.

The funeral of Captain Alexander McGowin will take place to-day at half past two o'clock, from the residence of his brother-in-law, Rowan McClure, corner of Hand street and Duquesne Way.

The Vicksburg Herald, of Wednesday, says: "An Irish woman by the name of Catharine McHugh, a resident of Memphis, deliberately pushed her husband Dennis overboard from the tug Queen yesterday morning and drowned him. From the testimony adduced yesterday, Dennis had married the woman while under the influence of liquor, and finding her character not of the most satisfactory nature, left her and came to this city and engaged himself as fireman on the tug Queen. The wife had been here several times to induce him to return to her, and failing to accomplish her purpose she proceeded to the tug boat where he had been eating his breakfast, and finding him seated on the guards pushed him into the river. He rose three times, but no assistance being at hand, sank to rise no more."

SINKING OF THE STEAMER CENTRALIA.—The Memphis and Fort Smith packet Centralia, bound from Fort Smith to Memphis, struck a snag in the Arkansas, at Auburn Landing, on Wednesday, and sunk in nine feet of water. It is feared the boat will prove a total loss, as her hull is broken badly. The Centralia was a good stern-wheel boat, and lately received several thousand dollars worth of repairs. She was owned by the Memphis and Arkansas River Packet Company, valued at $15,000, and insured in Cincinnati and St. Louis offices for three-fourths her value.

The bill making Chicago, St. Louis and Cincinnati ports of entry, and allowing transportation of imported goods direct to those ports in the original packages, passed the House by two majority. By an amendment distilled spirits and wines are excepted from the operation of the bill.

The Bellevernon, en route from St. Louis has the following items of freight for Pittsburgh: Rees, Graff & Dull, 19 bbls iron, 1 keg and 3 sacks bars; John Flack, 2 boxes bedsteads; John Fulton, 14 hhds tobacco and 2 bxs do; Nimick & Co., 100 tons pig iron; Davis, Chambers & Co., 136 pigs lead; Jas. Wood & Co., 200 tons ore; J. B. Canfield & Co., 50 pigs lead.

We clip the following from the Cincinnati Gazette of Monday: The Emma No. 3, Pittsburgh to St. Louis, passed down on Saturday well loaded. She received a few passengers here. Pilots, John Sullivan and Moses Kirkpatrick. The Delaware, Pittsburgh to Nashville, is expected here today. The Abeona received over one hundred tons of freight and some passengers from the J. N. McCullough. Besides what was reshipped on the Abeona, the McCullough reshipped 300 kegs nails and 12 tons other freight on the Mail boat America, 60 tons on the John H. Groesbeck, for New Orleans, and three and a half tons on the Havana, for Nashville. She took 100 ale barrels from the Westmoreland, and left for Pittsburgh in the afternoon.

The Importer arrived at Fort Randall on the 22d of May—crew all well.

RECENT STEAMBOAT TRANSFERS AT ST. LOUIS.—Victory, by Amos Abrams, B. A. Dozier, Jos. Gray and David P. Green, each sell one-fourth, to the St. Louis and Quincy Packet Company, for a total of $18,000, 8th May.

Sam Gaty, by Ben Johnson, one-quarter, to Peter P. Manion for $1,625, March 26th.

Julia, by Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship Company, to James R. Lockhart, Jno. N. Bofinger, David Campbell, Fred Lebartran and James B. Westlake, for $22,000, May 26th.

Bridgeport, by I. D. Fulkerson, James Kelly, Wm. Reilly, George. H. Brannon, Adolph Phelibert, for $6,000, each selling one-fifth; to Geo. M. Reilly, two-fifths, and Robert R. Kirkpatrick three-fifths, May 7th.

Evening Star, by A. L. Bryan, John M. Menkhaus, John F. Schwegman, Stephen M. Jones, each selling one-fifth for a total of $9,200, to Thomas W. B. Crews.

The Louisville Democrat, of Monday, says: The towboats Boaz, Lake Erie and Grand Lake were due from below last night. If we remember correctly, all of them are too long for the canal, and the stage of water on the falls could barely permit them to ascend. Should they not arrive until this morning, we can only refer them to Capt. Pink Varble.

River and Weather.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LOUISVILLE, June 2.—River falling with 6 feet in the canal. Weather is warm and showery.

ST. LOUIS, June 2.—Weather cloudy and very warm.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 140½.

THE Legislative ticket is a good and strong one, embracing the names of gentlemen who merit the hearty support of all members of the party.

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEES appointed by the several Conventions yesterday, to select a County Executive Committee, will meet on Saturday afternoon, at three o'clock, at the office of the Chairman, Thomas Ewing, Esq., Fourth street.

IT IS A MATTER of congratulation that JONATHAN NEELY has been re-nominated for the office of County Commissioner, a position which he has creditably filled for a number of years. He is popular with all classes of our citizens, and adds much strength to the general ticket.

MR. FLACK, who has been nominated for the Assistant District Attorneyship, is a young and promising lawyer of decided character and very fair ability. He occupied that office previous to the appointment by the Governor of Mr. RIDDELL, the present incumbent, and discharged its duties in such a manner as to attest his fitness for the position.

GEN. A. L. PEARSON, the nominee for the office of District Attorney, is too well known in this locality to need any special commendation on our part. He earned a golden record on the tented field, and the present honor is but a fitting acknowledgment of the eminent services rendered his country in the darkest hours of rebellion. He is a well read, practical lawyer and will bring with him into the office large legal experience.

THE test case made up at Philadelphia for the purpose of obtaining a judgment of the Supreme Court upon the constitutionality of the Registry Law, has been deferred to the next week. The case is not a bona fide proceeding between parties litigant, but is a feigned issue made up in order to obtain an injunction preventing the Registration Board from proceeding with their duties under the law. The case is so irregular in its inception, that much doubt is felt as to any degree of benefit to result from the desired adjudication.

THE friends of W. C. MORELAND, Esq., made a good fight in his behalf yesterday for the District Attorneyship nomination, but did not succeed, Gen. PEARSON being selected by a majority of one. Mr. MORELAND promptly accepted the will of the Convention and will do gallant service in the campaign in behalf of the nominees. He is competent to fill any position within the gift of the county, and high honor is in store for him, as his eminent services in the past, and to come, will not go unrewarded by a grateful party.

SENATOR TRUMBULL voted with the Democrats and the anti-impeachment Republican renegades on the resolution that STANTON was illegally removed. The same Senator voted, on the 23d of January, that the President's reasons for the suspension of STANTON were insufficient, and on the 21st of February he voted that the President had no power to remove Mr. STANTON. From his latter vote, the illegality of the removal would be the natural corollary. It is not difficult to see that the Illinois Senator is forever lost to himself, as well as to the Republican party.

THE CHARTER ELECTION at Washington City has resulted in the choice of BOWEN, the Republican candidate, for Mayor, by 74 majority. The result as to the Council is doubtful, but a Republican majority is thought to have been elected. Last year the Republicans carried their ticket by 2500 majority, on a registration of 18,004, in which the whites had a majority of 1,580. The registry has since been swelled to 20,000, this increase being mainly of very thinly white-washed rebels, and the white majority is now about 4,000. The success of the Republicans, on Monday last, was therefore the more remarkable.

NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION.

Yesterday's Conventions witnessed the nomination of Gen. JAMES S. NEGLEY for Congress from the XXIId District, the instruction of conferees in favor of Hon. THOMAS WILLIAMS in the XXIIId District, and the nomination of Hon. JAMES L. GRAHAM for Senator, HENRY LAMBERT, Esq., for Controller, and R. S. MCCULLY, Esq., for Surveyor, all by acclamation. These expressions may well be regarded by those gentlemen as very high compliments to their peculiar fitness for the offices to which they are to be elected, and it is but just to add that the compliment was in each case deserved.

THE XXIId DISTRICT.

The Republican choice in this district has fallen upon a good citizen, a tried and faithful Republican, and a gallant and highly honored soldier. General JAMES S. NEGLEY was found, when the Convention assembled, to be so generally the favorite choice of the delegates that his sole competitor, an accomplished gentleman and a sincere and effective laborer in the Republican cause, withdrew from the field and left the Convention free to confer, by its acclamations, the undisputed honor upon his more fortunate rival. Gen. NEGLEY was thereupon introduced to the Convention and, in a few well-chosen words, modestly acknowledged his gratification in this mark of the popular confidence, deprecated any unreasonable expectations from his perhaps too partial friends, pledged his utmost exertions to uphold the trust confided to him, in the canvass, at the polls, and, if elected, upon the floor of Congress with a just regard for the highest interests of this great city, and gracefully alluded to the lustre which the distinguished services of the present member (Gen. MOORHEAD) have reflected upon the representation of such a constituency.

General NEGLEY's military record is highly honorable, and has won for him the confidence of all good soldiers among his late comrades. An earnest and devoted Republican, an accomplished gentleman, a respected and honored citizen, he will prove himself a faithful and efficient Representative, if elected, and will win still higher honor in the councils of the nation.

GENERAL GRANT'S ACCEPTANCE.

The written reply, in which Gen. GRANT formally accepts his nomination as the Republican candidate for the Presidency, is brief, modest and yet comprehensive. In scarcely thirty lines he accepts the nomination, endorses the declared principles of the Convention, and states in addition thereto the whole duty which he should assume, if elected, as the faithful Executive head of the nation. In declaring that it should be his "endeavor to administer the laws in good faith," in proclaiming that the office is purely administrative and that it should only execute the will of the people; in avowing his desire for the peace of the whole land, and for its prosperity through the aid of economy in expenditures and a diminished taxation, he simply intensifies, by that specification of particular principles in the Republican creed, his general expressions of acquiescence in that creed as a whole.

When a grateful country shall have marked its appreciative sense of his past services, and of his peculiar fitness for a further trust, in the high office which demands administrative ability rather than suggestive capacity, by choosing him for its Chief Magistrate, we have the best reasons to believe that its destinies will be committed to a worthy successor of WASHINGTON and LINCOLN. A man modest but firm, brave but gentle, self-reliant and yet abundantly cautious, slow to announce an opinion and yet inflexibly tenacious of his conscientious convictions—whose career has witnessed an elevation in less than seven years from an almost unknown obscurity to a fame world-wide and to a hold upon the popular affections rivalling their attachment for the memory of his two great predecessors—General GRANT has escaped alike the censure of enemies, the jealousies of rivals and the proverbial ingratitude of a Republican people. That career, splendid as it has been, is to culminate in the exhibition of a capacity for practical statesmanship, which will win the applause of the people and the historian's encomiums as much for GRANT, the President, as for GRANT, the soldier.

IN ITS amendments to the Arkansas bill, the Senate differs from the House, in holding that when a State shall be once admitted, the power of Congress over the question of Constitutional amendments or alterations is exhausted. The Senate, therefore, strikes out the provision retaining to Congress the right to require any subsequent change in the Constitution of that State. It would be difficult to contend with the Senate on this point. We regard it as the well settled Constitutional law of the nation that Congress may prescribe any specific provisions in the compact of admission at its pleasure, if within the purview of the Federal Constitution. These terms would be afterwards enforced, as in the case of the Ordinance of '87 concerning the territory north of the Ohio. But this is quite different from the indefinite latitude of subsequent amendment to which the Senate has refused to assent. When the two Houses shall agree upon the specific terms to be required from Arkansas, and that State shall have complied with them, she will be admitted, and in all coming time she would be held as bound by them.

MR. REVERDY JOHNSON seems to have been entrusted by the President, prior to the vote upon the impeachment articles, with the delicate duty of negotiating with HENDERSON, TRUMBULL and FESSENDEN upon the basis of his proposition, if acquitted, to make a new Cabinet agreeable to moderate Republicans. Mr. HENDERSON testifies to this effect, and other Senators might be made witnesses to similar statements. It now appears that, in the very unlikely event of such a reconstruction of the Cabinet being had, it will be inaugurated by putting Mr. W. S. GROESBECK, a distinguished Cincinnati friend of Mr. PENDLETON, in the Treasury Department. A change so much to the liking of the "moderate Republicans" should be followed up by making FRANK BLAIR Secretary of State, putting STEADMAN in the Interior, Judge NELSON in the Postoffice, with the Navy Department to Mr. S. S. COX. It is more probable, however, that the President considers himself entirely released from any obligations under REVERDY JOHNSON's appeal to the "integrity" of Senators in his behalf.

THE annexed telegram from Gov. GEARY was received last evening:

"HARRISBURG, June 2, 1868.

Gen. J. S. Negley, accept my heartiest congratulations on your nomination.

JNO. W. GEARY.

OUR LOCAL CONVENTIONS.

The Republicans of this County did an admirable day's work yesterday. The Conventions for the County and Congressional districts were fully attended. The delegates were animated by a sincere desire to effect the strongest and most popular selections of candidates, with a view to securing for the whole ticket, local, State and Presidential, the largest possible majority at the polls, and accomplished their work in a manner most creditable to their wise discretion, and in a high degree auspicious to the public interests. Each of the Conventions transacted its business with harmony and celerity, those for the Congressional districts being in effect found to be unanimous in their respective preferences, and the County Convention, in which several spirited and close contests between candidates occurred, attaining its final results with a more than usually cordial acquiesence on the part of unsuccessful aspirants.

The nominees of the Convention are charged with weighty responsibilities in the canvass now begun. It is not merely that certain selected men may be successful in obtaining the popular suffrages for the offices which they respectively seek, that the Conventions of yesterday were held. The Republicans of Allegheny have rather the right to consider that, among the numerous competent and worthy gentlemen whose names were presented, the honorable strife was for the privilege of bearing through the campaign the banners of the party, and of defending them from hostile assaults, and of leading the front of a successful fight to a brilliant victory. It is the duty, as it will be heartily the pleasure, of these nominees to remember, that the campaign is not inaugurated for their good alone, but that the possession of the offices is to be to them but the incidental result of faithful and efficient exertions to the end that Republican principles may be more than ever triumphant. It was not the principal business of the Conventions to honor favorite selections by the bestowal of office; it was the higher aim of these bodies to advance the cause of Republicanism by nominating men who would and could do the most for that cause. The nominations were made for the benefit of the party, and all personal considerations were secondary to this. It gratifies us to feel authorized to assure our Republican friends that these are the opinions of the men whom they have chosen, and that the tickets bear the names of none who will not hold the interest of the party to be superior to any selfish ambition. Each and all of these gentlemen will do his duty to the last particular in upholding Republican interests in the canvass of Allegheny county.

The gentlemen who were unsuccessful candidates yesterday will also, we are quite sure, justify the partiality with which warm friends supported their wishes, by seizing this opportunity to give a still clearer proof that their political faith is the ripe fruit of an intelligent and sincere conviction, and that, if their fortunate rivals can be good Republican soldiers in posts of honor leading to the rewards of a sure victory, they can themselves rise morally still higher by showing that they know how to be soldiers quite as unfaltering and effective, although animated by no hopes of immediate reward. Were not the comparison invidious, we could well say that the soldier whom defeat has not demoralized is a veteran even more to be honored than another who, flushed with the pride of triumph, has not yet undergone the searching trial of disaster. And it is also a source of much gratification to feel sure, as we do, that among all the unsuccessful aspirants of yesterday, not one will ever justify the unkind criticism that he was faithfully and efficiently a Republican only so long as he had reasonable hopes of official emolument.

The candidates, to a man, without a solitary exception, whether successful or unsuccessful in yesterday's struggle, will back us up in the pledge of their hearty and effective support to the ticket. And thus the canvass opens under the most brightly promising auspices for an old fashioned Republican majority from the county of Allegheny.

THE SUPREMACY OF THE POPULAR WILL.

In one of his letters to the President, when retiring from the War office, Gen. GRANT declared that he should regard all duly enacted laws as constitutional until set aside by the proper judicial tribunal. In replying, a few days since, to an address from a Committee of the Soldiers and Sailors, he emphatically stated that, if elected to the Presidency, he should have no policy to enforce in antagonism to the will of the representatives of the people. In his letter of the 29th ult., replying to the official notification of his nomination by the Chicago Convention, he reiterates the same idea, in the declaration that "a purely administrative officer should always be left free to execute the will of the people. I always have respected that will, and always shall." And to these repeated expressions of his regard for the supremacy of the law-making power, his letter of acceptance adds also his hearty concurrence in the platform of principles adopted at Chicago.

The administration of our government has for thirty years been slowly but steadily drifting away from the well marked constitutional lines which divide the executive and legislative functions. Until three years since, the encroachments of the President upon the prerogatives of Congress have been substantially yielded to, and it was not until the usurpations of the present Executive became dangerously menacing to the most important public interests, that the XXXIXth Congress inaugurated a formal resistance to them. The Legislative department has since maintained that resistance consistently, and to a considerable degree successfully. Recent experience affords the only exception, and that temporary triumph of the extra-constitutional claims of the Executive already seems certain to result in such an expression of the popular will, in November, as will go far toward the re-establishment of the original principles of our political system. The Chicago platform, with the reiterated declarations of our distinguished nominee for the Presidency, expresses the essential element of Democratic Republican ideas, and the restoration of the Republic to the path marked out by its fathers will date from the election of Gen. GRANT. Let the President have a policy, if he wishes, but let him make that policy ever subordinate to the conditions of the law-making power. General GRANT will never forget that it is his constitutional duty to execute the enactments of Congress—in which his privilege of approval or veto makes him a qualified participant,—according to their letter and in conformity with their spirit. He has enunciated the true theory of our political system in this respect, with a plain and clear precision which leaves nothing further to be desired, except his induction into the high office to which his countrymen have invited him.

A COMMITTEE of the House, engaged in investigating the allegations of corruption in the trial of Impeachment, have ascertained that a person named WOOLLEY, said to be connected with the whisky ring, had made some mysterious use of a large sum of ready money within a few days preceding the final vote of the Senate. Other evidence abundantly showing that he was interesting himself very actively in the President's behalf, and making it probable that he had applied the money to promote his acquittal, he was very properly requested to state the facts. He refused, and defied the power of the House to compel any revelation. The House insists upon its right to know, and has put the obstinate witness in close custody until he shall comply with its orders. Democratic Representatives and journals, who seem particularly interested in smothering this investigation, are making a great outcry over this proper and lawful punishment of a contumacious witness, but it will avail nothing either to him or to them. The House is in earnest in this business, and will persevere until it has elicited that truth which it is for the interest of the whole country to know.

A PRIVATE letter from a son of JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE informs the editor of the Atlanta (Ga.) New Era, that he will arrive in Canada from Europe by the middle of June.

Washington Topics and Gossip.

There is but little occurring of interest at the Capitol to-day. Soon after the House assembled, the contested election case of Morgan vs. Delano was called up, Mr. Schofield speaking in favor of the right of the latter to a seat.

The Managers are in session examining witnesses relative to the charge that votes of certain radical Senators could be obtained for acquittal for the sum of thirty thousand dollars.

The action of the House caucus of Republicans last night, in an informal manner, deciding that it would not be politic to adjourn Congress at the present time, when there is so much general legislation to be done, meets with general satisfaction here by many. However, it is feared that as soon as the extreme warm weather sets in, that this decision may be reconsidered, and Congress adjourn before the new tax bill is passed.

In the Senate this afternoon, Mr. Edmunds introduced a joint resolution excluding from the Electoral College the votes of the States lately in rebellion, which shall not have been recognized. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The bill making amendments to the National Currency act was called up by Mr. Sherman, but finally postponed indefinitely, although Mr. Sherman said he should consider such a postponement a virtual defeat of the measure.

The railways between this city and New York have consolidated their through traffic so as to be under the charge of one head.

President Johnson has prepared an order closing the Departments on Thursday, in respect to the memory of ex-President Buchanan. It will be impossible for him to attend the obsequies.

The testimony of Adams before the Managers, is to the effect that himself, Weed, and Webster, met and talked over a proposition to purchase votes, but the whole scheme was treated as a matter of no consequence.

Neither Mr. Stanbery nor Mr. Reverdy Johnson will be confirmed. The latter has been offered Mr. Adams' place.

Hon. John D. Defrees will be re-elected Public Printer almost unanimously.

Messrs. Schenck, Kelly, and others are pushing on the new tax bill, and urge its passage, even by night sessions, if it cannot be done otherwise.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

—E. P. Buell, a prominent manufacturer and politician of Hartford, Conn., committed suicide on Saturday.

—Commissioner Rollins reports that the law passed a few weeks since, reducing the taxes, is working well. If the whisky tax could be collected there would be revenue enough without a new bill.

—Levi Hartridge, cashier of the First National Bank of Seneca Falls, N. Y., is in a state of temporary insanity. He attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat at the Syracuse House Monday morning.

—Hon. Reverdy Johnson is said to have advised a friend in Baltimore that President Johnson will soon issue a proclamation of general amnesty, which will include a free pardon for all rebels, from Jeff. Davis down.

—The city of Lancaster is in mourning and the national emblem was flying at half mast yesterday in respect to the death of ex-President Buchanan. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon, and it will be large and imposing.

—The Sub-Committee of Ways and Means have reported a new Tariff bill to that committee. It reviews the entire subject, and will probably be adopted. There will be no reduction, but rather an increase of duties, owing to large reductions in the tax bill.

—To-day will be a day of more than usual interest in Chicago, for the remains of the lamented Stephen A. Douglas will be removed to their final resting place with the most solemn service. The ceremonies are to commence at half-past ten in the morning. Bishop Simpson will deliver prayer for the occasion, and the remains will be conveyed to the mausleum attended by a guard of honor, furnished by the students of the Chicago University.

Ice Cream and Confectionary.

In the beautiful and new store room, No. 105 Fifth street, there has been opened a first class confectionary and ice cream saloon by Mr. P. H. M'Guire. The stock of foreign and American sweet meats, nuts, fruits, &c., will be found unusually large and well selected, embracing all the most popular articles of confectionary. The saloon for ladies and gentlemen has been fitted up in good style, and the choicest ice cream and berries will be dealt out to those favoring this place with a call. Mr. M'Guire knows how to conduct his business, and will be found agreeable, courteous and fair dealing. We commend him to the patronage of our readers, knowing that no where else in the city can a finer assortment of confectionaries be found,

The manufacture of trunks in this city forms no minor part in the mercantile statistics of the district, and everywhere the superiority of the articles turned out from such well conducted houses as that of Jos. Liebler, No. 104 Wood street, is generally acknowledged. This firm stands high in public estimation, and through careful attention to business, and superiority of workmanship, has succeeded in building up a large trade, which is daily increasing. Mr. Liebler deals in all description of trunks, carpet sacks, valises, portfolios, &c., &c., which he can sell at less than eastern prices. Call in and look through his stock and inquire his prices, and thus you will satisfy yourself that the Premium Trunk Factory is worthy the large patronage it receives.

Such of our readers as may wish to examine a first-class stock of dry goods, fresh from the eastern market, we advise to visit the emporium of Messrs. Bates & Bell, 21 Fifth street. This firm has always on hand an extensive and well assorted stock, but that to which we now refer is particularly fine and well suited to the season. It includes a large variety of dress goods of a very superior quality, which are worthy of a special examination, and an assortment of housekeeping goods, selected with great care.

Remember that this afternoon at four o'clock, Messrs. Smithson, Vanhook & McClelland will expose at public sale to the highest bidder, the elegant suburban residence at Homewood which is advertised in another column. It is only once in a decade of years that such a rare opportunity is presented to secure a beautiful suburban home, in a delightful neighborhood at auction sale.

Teas, Sugars, Spices, Coffees and general groceries at very reasonable prices at Robinson's old established tea mart, No. 20 Fifth street. The stock is large, new and inviting.

Left His Wife.—Margaret Weber made information before Alderman Taylor, charging her husband with abandonment. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

EVERY VIOLATION

Of the laws of health invariably entails its own punishment, and the warnings administered by the faithful monitor (pain) cannot be neglected with impunity. If its admonitions were heeded, and the proper remedy immediately resorted to, a vast amount of suffering would be prevented, and dangerous diseases averted. When the head throbs, the lips become parched, and the cheek is burning—the warning is given; neglect is then dangerous. In the vast storehouses of nature may be found remedies for all the different maladies that afflict mankind, without resorting to pernicious minerals. The best of these medicinal agents have been incorporated in the preparation known as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, and offered as a safe remedy to those suffering from the various forms of fever. This medicine has steadily and surely won its way into the confidence of the public, and has received the warmest encomiums from the press and people throughout the Union. As a valuable tonic for the cure of Dyspepsia, Flatulence, Constipation and general nervous debility, it cannot be approached. Every day new cases of its great effect are chronicled through our public journals. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment which the afflicted experience when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body, should recommend it to all classes o. our community.

ADVICE TO CONSUMPTIVES.

DR. KEYSER says: "You want air, not physic; you want pure air, not medicated air; you want plenty of nutrition, such as plenty of meat and bread will give; physic has no nutriment; gasping for air cannot cure you; monkey capers in a gymnasium cannot cure you; and stimulants cannot cure you. If you want to get well, go in for BEEF AND OUT-DOOR AIR."—Republic.

He says further: Don't put off the first symptoms. "A little leak may sink a great ship;" a small sore in the throat, lungs or liver will soon involve the whole body. How often do we see people put off for a year or two what in the beginning could have been remedied for a trifle. The Doctor's advice is, and always has been, attend to the first symptoms of disease. Do not let the constitution become a wreck before you begin to mend; if you do, ten to one there will be no remedy. There is a remedy for every disease if taken in time. A slight sore throat or cough may be removed with comparatively little trouble; but a constitution, sinking and breaking to pieces by allowing these little troubles to accumulate is not so easy. Dr. Keyser's mode of lung sounding is unique, and as thorough as it is unique. There is not a spot or space over the whole surface of the lungs that he does not sound and investigate, and by so doing is enabled to supply the appropriate remedy.

DR. KEYSER'S RESIDENT CONSULTING OFFICE FOR LUNG EXAMINATIONS AND TREATMENT OF CHRONIC DISEASES, No. 190 PENN STREET, from 9 A. M. UNTIL 3 P. M.

June 1st, 1868.

600 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is on absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through business that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.

The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July, at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent. in gold. The Principal is payable in gold at maturity. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of

NEARLY NINE PER CENT.,

AND IT IS BELIEVED THAT THEY WILL SOON BE AT A PREMIUM.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.

Parties subscribing will remit the par value of the bonds and the accrued interest in currency at the rate of six per cent. per annum, from the date on which the last coupon was paid. Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by

JAMES T. BRADY & Co., corner of Wood and Fourth Streets;

HART, CAUGHEY & Co., corner of Wood and Third Streets;

S. McCLEAN & CO., 75 Fourth Street;

PH. R. MERTZ, corner 5th and Wood Sts.;

ROBINSON BROS., 78 Fourth street;

AND IN NEW YORK

At the Company's Office, No. 40 Nassau Street, and by

JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall Street, and by the Company's advertised agents throughout the United States.

Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the Bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents, will look to them for their safe delivery.

A PAMPHLET AND MAP FOR 1868 has just been published by the Company, giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, the Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's offices, or to any of the advertised agents.

FOR SALE.

A RIVER BOTTOM FARM OF 76 ACRES, 19 miles from the city, in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the Youghiogheny river, one-half mile from Elrod's Station, on the Connellsville railroad; near churches, schools, stores, &c., in the flourishing villages of Boston and Green Oak. The improvements are a two-story brick house of six rooms, hall and cellar, a good frame bank barn with stabling underneath, and other outbuildings; a well of good standing water at the door, and several standing springs of water on the farm, and an orchard of 700 trees of selected fruits of apples, cherries, pears, peaches, quinces and grapes. This property being located near the line of the railroad, within one hour's ride of the city, makes it very desirable for gardening or a dairy farm; it is also a good and beautiful location for country homes near the city, lying immediately on the river, on the opposite side from the railroad. The West Newton Accommodation and other trains on the railroad afford certain and frequent opportunities of daily communication to and from the city. Will be sold as a whole or in lots of one acre or more, to suit purchasers.

Also, A FARM OF 173 ACRES, situated in St. Clair township, Westmoreland county, Pa., near the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Houston Station. The improvements are a two-story frame house, with six rooms and good cellar, a frame bank barn 40 by 60 feet, and other outbuildings. There is on the place a young apple and peach orchard; 120 acres cleared land, divided into fields of convenient size, a large portion of which are well set in clover and timothy; the residue of said tract covered with good timber. It is well watered and underlaid with coal and limestone, and is convenient to churches, schools, stores, mills and blacksmith shops. A real good bargain is offered in this excellent farm; and with it will be sold all the personal property on the premises, consisting of horses, cows, young stock cattle, harness, gears, wagon, plows, farming implements and household and kitchen furniture. Together will be sold very low and on easy terms, to a responsible purchaser.

Also, a desirable and very fertile Tract of Land of 158 ACRES AND 25 PERCHES, in Elizabeth Tp., Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Hempfield railroad, and one and one-half miles from the Monongahela railroad at Suter's Station. On this farm are 40 acres of superior white oak timber, which alone is now worth one-half the price asked for the whole tract. The improvements are a log house, frame barn, good fencing, and an apple orchard of good fruit. It is well watered and underlaid with limestone and flag stone of a superior quality, with stone coal for the use of the farm.

Also, The best FARM in Fairfield township, Westmoreland county, Pa., of 250 ACRES, about six miles south of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad at Bolivar Station. The improvements are two large hewed log dwellings; one of the largest and best frame barns in the township; two apple orchards, in good bearing condition; corn crib, wagon-shed and other outbuildings. The whole farm is under a high state of cultivation; fencing all in first rate order, and the land of the best quality of limestone soil, about 200 acres of which is cleared and the residue of the tract in good timber, such as white oak, rock oak, hickory, walnut and beech. This property will be sold very cheap and on good terms, as the owner wishes to engage in other business. For particulars enquire of

J. B. HARRIS' SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

Car Heater and Moderator,

For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.

Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, June 2, 1868.

Gold opened dull and lower in the morning at 138⅝, but as the day advanced. the market became strong, and it closed at 140¼. The demand for export continues unabated, and the imports of general merchandise are nearly equal to the largest figures during the war, whilst our exports have dwindled down to about one-third of the imports. Under such circumstances, unless a large demand arises for United States securities abroad for investment, the shipments of coin have to increase rather than decrease. At the rate of gold exported during the last three weeks, the supply in Bank now would just last to July next, and, consequently, the premium will rule high.

Government bonds suffered a decline today of from ¼ to ½ per cent., but since the investment demand is on the increase, it must be inferred the depression is merely temporarily and artificial. It is surprising to see people now to invest at present prices, 113¾ for 1867s, that would not pay 108 for them. Seven Thirties are coming in freely, and by next July there will be few left to be exchanged.

The stock market was dull and lower today; Fort Wayne, after having reached 116¼, suddenly broke down, and was offered at 113½, a decline of three per cent in almost a moment. Fort Wayne carried down the balance of the list. In Express stocks the same dullness and entire absence of purchasers prevails. Mining shares were less active to-day, but quotations were well maintained.

Business is very quiet and money is scarcer. None but first-class borrowers can be accommodated. Some inquiry is made for bank stocks at high prices, by parties who do not wish to buy Governments.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 140⅜; 1881 bonds, 116; 1862 5-20s, 112¼; 1864 do, 110⅜; 1865 do. 110⅜; Consols, 113¾; 10-40s, 105⅝; 7-30s, 109⅛.

Railroads—Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 88½; Fort Wayne, 113⅝; North Western, common 69; North Western—preferred, 81½; New York Central, 134¾; Erie, 68¼; Old Southern, 89¾; Ohio & Mississippi, 30¼; Merchants Union Express, 30; Western Union Telegraph, 38¼. Mining Shares—Corydon, 30; Quartz Hill, 115; Quicksilver, 29.

—The New York Tribune, of Monday, says: Governments continue in good demand for all classes, and the desire to operate for an advance is unabated. The investment demand continues very heavy, and large blocks are taken by lenders of money who are unable to place their balances at better than 3 per cent., and prefer this mode of getting a fair rate of interest. The enormous conversion of Seven Thirties for the past week has prevented the issue of the coupons of 1867 as fast as the demand of investors required, and dealers who have converted notes and sold the bonds find themselves short and are active borrowers. The day's business was the heaviest ever done in Wall street, and the demand continues to increase every day, and much higher prices are predicted by the large operators.

The same paper also says: Money continues easy, and the amount offering at 3 and 4 per cent. is largely in excess of the requirements of the speculative demand in the street. The banks who during the late money pressure were so eager to make shares, and used their utmost endeavors to exact large commissions from their dealers, now find great difficulty in placing their funds, brokers preferring to take the money of banks and bankers who accommodated them during the panic at higher rates of interest than those offered by these over-sharp dealers, who will find that in the long run it is for their interest to relieve instead of intensifying a money panic. At the close money was offered in large blocks at 3 per cent., and holders were unable to place funds at any price. The money market is now easier than at any time within the past six years, and promises to remain so for the next 30 days.

—Closing quotations received by James T. Brady & Co.:

Gold, 140; U. S. 6's, 1881's, 116; 5-20's, 1862, 112¼; 5-20's, 1864, 110⅜; 5-20's, 1865, 110⅜; 10-40's, 105⅜; 5-20's, January and July, '65, 113¾; 5-20's, January and July, '67, 113⅜; June 7-30's, 109⅜; July 7-30's, 109⅛; May Comp., 1865, 119¾-40.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 2.—The weather is gloomy and trade dull; the market consequeptly is lacking in buoyancy. The only important changes noticeable to-day is the reduction in price of New Market A Brown Sheetings and Great Falls M to one shilling per yard. Heavy standard Sheetings bring 16½a17½c, and standard Prints 12½a13½c.

Chicago Cattle Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, June 2.—Beef cattle firm and quiet at $6,50a7 for stock cattle and common steers; $7,25a8,25 for fair to good butchers steers, and $8,40a8,50 for good shipping steers. Hogs dull and 15a30c lower; sales at $8a8,25 for common, and $9a9,55 for good to extra choice. Receipts—380 live hogs.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, June 2, 1868.

Th general markets continue very dull and devoid of any new characteristics worthy of special notice. Flour and Grain continue weak, with a drooping tendency, end Provisions, also, are dull but unchanged. Eggs are steady, with a demand fully up to the supply. Dried Fruit and Potatoes are dull, while Butter, although the arrivals are falling off, continues neglected.

APPLE BUTTER—Is steady, with regular sales at 80 to $1 per gallon, according to quality.

ASHES—Quiet and unchanged.

POTATOES—Continue very dull; we continue to note small sales of prime Peach Blows, in store at $1,35 to $1,40.

DRIED FRUIT—Is very dull, and the arrivals are increasing; prices, however, are unchanged. Small sales at 12 to 13c for Peaches, and 6½ to 7¼c for Apples.

GRAIN—Wheat is in better supply and very dull; parties who have held back all winter and spring expecting to get famine prices, are being sadly disappointed. We ere cognizant of a sale of prime Tennessee White at $2,52½, which could have been sold three weeks ago at $2,80; indeed, that offer was then made, and, unfortunately for the seller, refused. Oats quiet and unchanged; we now quote at 82 to 83c, on wharf, and 85c, in store. Prime Ear Corn is in fair demand, with sales at $1,10 $1,12; mixed and white is nominal at $1,03 to $1,05. Rye is quiet and nominally unchanged at $1,90.

HAY—Is coming in more freely, and prices are lower; Weighmaster McNulty at the Allegheny Diamond Scales, reports sales of 78 loads at $15 to $24 per ton.

STRAW—Sales at $12 to $19.

HUSKS—Sales of two loads of Cornhusks at 3c per lb.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is scarce and wanted at $2,50 to $2,55. No demand whatever for Clover or Timothy.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unchanged; 14c for Shoulders; 16c to 18c and 18¼c for Ribbed and Clear Sides; 19¼ to 19½c for Plain, and 20 to 20½c for Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle rendered Lard, 18¾ to 19c. Mess Pork, $28,50 to $29.

LARD OIL—Sales at $1,50 for Extra No. 1, and $1,25 for No. 2.

CHEESE—Sales at 14 to 15c for W. R.

FLOUR—Is dull and weak, and notwithstanding the receipts are falling off and the supply light, prices are barely maintained. We now quote at $10,50 to $11 for Spring Wheat; $12 to $12,25 for Winter Wheat; and $14 to $15 for fancy brands. Rye Flour, $10 to $10,25.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, June 2, 1868.

CRUDE—The market is quiet and dull, and devoid of anything that is new or interesting. Sales of 500 and 800 bbls, on spot, at 10½c, and 100 bbls "Smtth's Ferry," on spot, at 10c. There seems to be but very little inquiry, and, notwithstanding the offerings are light, and the stock of spot oil by no means large, the market, as we have already stated, is dull, and prices are nominally unchanged. Oil City telegrams quote nominally at $3,90.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil is also very dull and a little weak, and prices are nominally unchanged. But a single sale reported, 500 bbls for the last half of June at 28½c. Quotations may be fairly given at 28¼ to 28½c for June; 29c for July; 29½c for August; 30½c for August, September and October and 31c for the last five months.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil reported to-day were as follows:

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

General Assembly of the U. P. Church.

[Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

The General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church met in Argyle, New York, at two o'clock, P. M., on Thursday, the 27th, and was opened by Dr. Dales, Moderator of last year, with an earnest and impressive sermon on 1 Cor. 9, 16; "Yea Woe is unto me if I Preach not the Gospel." After the completing and calling the roll, Rev. James Harper, D.D., was elected Moderator and Rev. A. G. Wallace, Assistant Clerk. On Thursday the Assembly met at 9 A. M., and, after the usual opening exercises, the Moderator announced the following Standing Committees. We give the Chairmen. Bills and Overtures—Dr. J. T. Pressly. Judicial Committee—Dr. R. Gracey. On the State of Religion—Dr. W. Davidson. On Correspondence—Rev. J. R. Lee. On Devotional Exercises—Rev. J. Bain. On Finance—Rev. M. M. Morrisen. On Revision—Rev. S. Jamison. On Statistics—Rev. J. R. Miller. The following papers were read and appropriately referred: 1. Report of the agent to raise funds to aid in building a church in San Francisco. About $4,345 have been contributed with the prospect of the additional amount necessary. 2. Report of the Missionary, Rev. M. Gibson, in that city, from which it appears that the congregation is in a highly prosperous condition. During the past year twenty have been added by certificate and nineteen by profession. There are at present seventy families and one hundred and thirty-two members. 3. Memorial from the Second Synod of Ohio, asking a modification of the 16th article of the testimony. 4. A paper from the Reformed Presbyterian Synod on the subject of the proposed amendment to the United States Constitution. 5. A communication from Rev. Dr. Stearns, Chairman of the Committee appointed by the "Philadelphia Convention" to bring their action, on the subject of union between the various Presbyterian churches, before their several Assemblies. This subject is likely to occupy some attention. 5. Report of the Board of Home Missions. About $44,000 will be necessary to cancel present indebtedness and meet the expenses of the present year. 6. Report of Board of Foreign Missions. This is an important document, showing the operation in the various foreign fields. A meeting will be held this evening on the subject. It is estimated that about $60,000 in coin will be needed during the ensuing year. 7. The report of the Board of Church Extension. A very important branch of the church's work.

The afternoon of Thursday was occupied in reading reports. The report of the Board of Freedmen's Mission showed a highly encouraging state of matters in the several stations, and was accompanied with an earnest appeal for increased liberality in this direction.

The Board of Publication reported a large increase of business both in the way of new works issued by them, and the sale of Bibles and other religious works.

The Committee appointed last year, reported adversely to any change in the Constitution of the Board of Foreign Missions.

It was agreed that each evening from 7½ till 9 be employed in prayer and conference, the subjects of Missions and Sabbath Schools to occupy special attention.

In the evening Dr. Dales, Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, occupied an hour in describing the operations, wants and prospects of the missions in China, India, Syria, Egypt and Italy. Rev. Mr. Watson, from Egypt, also addressed the Assembly. They were heard with deep attention, and, no doubt, an increased interest was awakened in these important departments of the Church's work.

Friday forenoon was spent in hearing reports of Presbyteries until 11 o'clock, when Dr. Pelts, a delegate from the Reformed (Dutch) Church, was introduced and addressed the Assembly, assuring them of the deep interest and warm regard cherished for them by his Church. They had changed their name, leaving out the term "Dutch," but they still cherished the principles of the Heidelburg Catechism and Betgii Confession, and felt they were one in the doctrines of Grace with those who firmly adhered to the noble Westminster Confession of Faith. That if they were to seek Union with any other denomination, the United Presbyterian Church would be their first choice, &c.

The Moderator responded in the same cordial manner, requesting him to carry back to his Synod the Christian salutations and assurance of the cordial sympathy and good wishes of the United Presbyterian Church.

FRIDAY, 2 P. M.—The subject of Theological Seminaries occupied most of the session. 1st. It was recommended to Presbyteries that no student be licensed to preach until he has completed the entire course of study. 2d. That the term of study in the Theological Seminaries shall be three years, and the length of the session seven months, commencing on the first Tuesday of September and ending on the fourth Thursday of March. 3d. That every student shall be under the care of some Presbytery. 4th. The curriculum of study reported to the Assembly in 1866 was approved and adopted for use in all the Seminaries.

The evening session was spent in religious exercises and hearing remarks on Home and Freedmen's Missions. A deep interest is felt in these important fields of Christian effort.

On Saturday morning the report of the Committee of Bills and Overtures on the memorial of the Second Synod of the West for a modification of the 16th article of the Testimony, was read and after some discussion, adopted. The report, after reciting that the faith and practice of both churches on the subject of communion was in substance the same, and that no union could have been effected without the principle embodied in the 16th article, that good faith requires its honest observance, whilst sessions have of necessity a certain discretionary power in extraordinary cases. The report closes with a resolution, in substance that the 16th article defines with sufficient clearness the terms of communion, and that no modification is necessary. The same Committee reported resolutions cordially concurring in the movement of the "National Association," to have inserted in our National Constitution an acknowledgement of God as supreme, of Christ as Mediator, and the Bible as the supreme law amongst men and nations, and recommending the people to co-operate in the movement.

Committees were appointed to continue the work of completing the new version of the Psalms, and revising those already published.

Rev. Henry Gordon, of Cambridge, was commissioned to attend the General Synod of the Reformed Church, to meet in Hudson, N. Y., on the 3d of June.

The Case of George H. Stuart.

This highly gifted and distinguished man, whose reputation as a philanthropist and a Christian is world-wide, and whose personal labors as President of the Young Men's Christian Association before the war, and of the Christian Commission during the war, made him personally known to the people of nearly every city of our land, and enthusiastically beloved wherever known and by Christians of every name, is a native of Ireland, whence he came while a young man. For many years he has been a prosperous merchant of Philadelphia, an importer of dry goods. He has since early life been a member of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, popularly known as the Covenanter Church, and for many years has held the office of ruling elder in the first church of that name in Philadelphia, of which the venerable Samuel Wylie, D. D. the early friend, schoolmate, and brother-in-law of our own Dr. Black, was long the pastor, and of which his son, equally learned and gifted, and whose locks are now silvery with age, has been the pastor since his father's death.

Mr. Stuart is a man of large and generous impulses, of an ardent and mercurial temperament, a fine scholar, a ready, pleasant and impressive speaker, one who can enkindle in his auditory the same fire which burns in his own breast, and throw open their hearts and purse strings as few men can. Many of the people of Pittsburgh, while thinking of him, will call to remembrance that memorable night, in one of the darkest and most anxious periods of the war, when, in response to his ardent appeals for our soldiers, they poured twenty-two thousand dollars into the treasury of the Christian Commission before the benediction was pronounced.

In his multifarious labors as a Christian and a patriot—but never as a politician—he was necessarily brought into contact with Christians of all the evangelical denominations, and joined with all his heart in their prayers and praises. In fact, such is the temperament of the man, that for him to do anything in a half-hearted way would be an impossibility. As far as he could be so with a good conscience, he was, like the great apostle, "all things to all men," that he might draw sinners to Christ, draw Christians into love and fellowship, and draw out the hearts of our people into unexampled benefactions to the brave and suffering defenders of the nation. It was impossible that a man so laboring, so beloved and honored by all true Christians, should not love them in return. He, therefore, joined with others in their songs of praises and in commemoration of the death of their common Redeemer. But in so doing he became chargeable with a violation of a rule or law of the church of which he was a member and an officer, and for this he was put upon his trial before the general synod of that church, which met in Pittsburgh this week. No witnesses were called, for he himself was present as a member of that body, and frankly admitted that he had done these things. For two days and a half the case was discussed amid strong excitement. By one side it was contended that they were bound to vindicate the law of the church which forbade the use of uninspired compositions in the praises of God, and also intercommunion in the Lord's supper with Christians of other denominations. On the other side it was argued that the practice of many churches, and even entire presbyteries, had virtually abrogated that law. Dr. Wylie, Mr. Steuart's pastor, unhesitatingly declared that he himself had done so repeatedly while worshiping with other Christians, and so said several other ministers. In no case was it alleged that in the regular church or social meetings of the denomination had hymns been sung; but only in mixed meetings.

During the last two days of the discussion Mr. Stuart was confined to his room at the Monongahela house by a severe attack of spasmodic asthma, to which he is subject, the result, it is said, of his excessive labors during the war. He was unable to be present during the debate, and when the vote suspending him from office and membership was taken. Dr. Wylie, at the close, made an eloquent appeal in behalf of his friend, and then the vote was taken by yeas and nays, which resulted, for the resolution condemning him, 28; against it, 15; not voting, 6.

Thus ended this important case, the moral effect of which will be felt throughout all the churches. Legally, logically, the judgment of the court is right, provided the law under which it was rendered has not become a dead letter by disuetude. In some parts of the country it appears to have become so; in other parts it seems to be strictly and rigidly adhered to; and the members of the synod spoke and voted accordingly. Mr. Stuart, while he freely admits that he sung hymns, and also communed outside of his particular denomination, justifies his conduct in the most emphatic terms. The effect of this will be to bring the law itself upon trial before the bar of the consciences of Christian men, in which court the volume of inspiration will be the only law. The members of this synod on both sides, acted, as I believe, honestly and conscientiously. Those who voted for condemnation held the law forbidding what Mr. Stuart did to be in full force, and that they were bound by it; while those who took the other side regarded it as a dead letter, as they do that other law of that Church, which forbids its members from voting or holding office under this government, and which is still adhered to by another division of the same Church. Let no one, therefore, condemn either side in this important case; for each did right as it was given them to see the right. But is this law right? or is it a fetter upon Christian liberty? If the latter, then it falls into the category of "those things which are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain," (Heb. xvii. 27.)—a part of the wood, hay, and stubble of which the same inspired writer speaks. REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS.

The Twenty-second Congressional District Nomination—Organization—List of Delegates—Mr. Howard's Letter of Withdrawal—General Negley Nominated by Acclamation.

The delegates chosen Saturday to represent the several townships, wards and boroughs in the Twenty-second Congressional District, assembled in Convention Tuesday, June 2d, at ten o'clock, in the Common Council Chamber, City building, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate to represent the District in the National House of Representatives.

The Convention was called to order by J. S. Dilworth, Esq., on whose motion Maj. J. F. Slagle, was elected chairman.

On motion of F. C. Negley, Esq., E. A. Montooth, J. S. Lambie, Isaac Walker and Joseph A. Butler, Esqs., were chosen Secretaries.

On taking the chair Maj. Slagle addressed the Convention in a brief and appropriate manner, and thanked the delegates for the honor they had conferred on him in selecting him to preside over their deliberations, considering it a special honor to be called upon to preside over a Convention of the Republican party—a party whose past career has been victory, and whose future is destined to be onward, conquering, and to conquer.

After some further remarks, in which he referred to the great work accomplished, the speaker closed by briefly noticing the nomination of Grant and Colfax.

The roll of delegates was then called, and the following districts reported:

Snowden—Joseph Miller, Philip Simons.
Pine—Jas. Ralston, David Collins.
Crescent—John Hamilton, W. H. Bailey.

Pending the presentation of the credentials, Mr. Lambie moved that a Committee on Credentials be appointed.

The Chairman suggested that it be deferred for the present.

After the credentials of all the delegates had been received, the Chair announced that the districts were all fully represented, and suggested that the organization be completed by the election of Vice Presidents.

The following named gentlemen were then nominated and elected Vice Presidents: John Wilson, Wm. B. Hays, Jr., Thos. McMasters, Jas. Reese, Levi Gregg, Col. J. H. Stewart, Saml. Kilgore, Robert Finney and Charles Jeremy.

Col. Stewart moved that the motion of Mr. Lambie to appoint a Committee on Credentials be adopted, and the following gentlemen constitute the committee, Messrs. Charles Jeremy, John Bell and John Richardson.

The motion was adopted, and the Committe retired to City Engineer's office to prepare their report.

Mr. Dilworth moved that a Committee of five be appointed by the Chair to prepare resolutions to be passed upon by the Convention. Adopted, and the Chair appointed Messrs. Dilworth, Robert Finney, D. Kirk, Frank Patterson and C. B. M. Smith.

Mr. F. C. Negly moved that a Committee of three be appointed to confer with the County Executive Committee, relative to the appointment of a Joint Executive Committee to conduct the campaign.

On motion the Convention proceeded to nominations for Congress.

Col. John H. Stewart nominated Major Gen. James S Negley.

Mr. Frank Gardner, of Elizabeth, nominated Thomas Howard.

On motion the nominations closed.

MR. HOWARD WITHDRAWS.

Mr. C. B. M. Smith withdrew the name of Mr. Howard from the Convention, stating that he was authorized to say that Mr. Howard, bowed with submission to the decision of the district against him, and as a good Republican would give a hearty support to the entire ticket. He then asked and obtained permission to read the following letter from Mr. Howard:

To the Delegates of the Union Republican Convention of the Twenty-Second Congressional District; GENTLEMEN—When I consented to be a candidate for Congress, I had such assurances as led me to suppose I should receive a cordial and honorable support; and, believing that none but Republicans ought to participate in the primary meetings, I looked to them solely for their votes. From information that I consider reliable, the Democrats have materially aided our party in the election of delegates. If this course is persisted in, our primary meetings, (especially in this city) will be brought to such disgrace that it will prove injurious to the Republican party. The more honorable and high-minded Democrats do not engage in the business, but only those who are influenced by unworthy considerations.

I have learned sufficient of the result of the primary meetings to convince me that a decided majority of the delegates to your Convention are opposed to my nomination. Therefore I will not disturb the harmony of your body, and I desire that my name shall be withdrawn as a candidate.

To my friends who have given me their support I return my most sincere and heartfelt thanks, and I assure them that my gratification is as warm, and their endeavors will be as truly cherished as though they had been successful; and while it is true that I do not belong to that class who make "hand-shaking" a basis for popularity, yet I can truly say that no man ever did me a kindness that was forgotten, or a favor that I would not return with interest if in my power.

Having no claim upon the Republican party, I trust, however, that in consideration of thirteen years sincere and earnest service in her ranks, I shall be pardoned for saying a few words in defence of my character, that has been so bitterly assailed during the recent canvass.

One of the original Republicans of this county, steadily and consistently acting with them, publicly and privately, in all parts of our county and State, and sincerely and earnestly advocating their principles, and voting that ticket, and no other, I have been represented as voting and acting with the Democratic party "the past year." Born, raised and educated a Protestant, I have been represented as a Roman Catholic, and garbled extracts of a latter written and published in the Pittsburgh Post, twenty years ago, against "Nativeism," and denouncing the idea of bringing religion into party politics, was published in Republican papers without date, to make the impression that it was recently written. That was in 1848, and then I was a Democrat, and then the Democratic party was anti-slavery, and opposed to the extension of that institution into the Territories. When, in 1845, that party abandoned that principle, I left the party, and followed the principle into the Republican party. I claim to have been consistent, and yet I have been represented as a "political chameleon."

"Extracts" of that letter were published, with comments most unfair and unwarrantable. In 1848, the people of Catholic and Protestant Europe, by a decided movement, rose against their rulers and declared for a republican government. Louis Philippe was driven from France, and Louis Napoleon entered as a republican, while the great German orator, Carl Schurz, and the distinguished Gen. Siegel, led the Republicans of Germany.

In 1848 the Pope of Rome seemed to be inspired with the prevailing spirit of the age, and he declared for a more liberal Government for Italy, and under his authority a liberal assembly was convened in Rome, of which Garibaldi was a member, and he promised his people constitutional government, and he was then "hailed as the liberator of Europe;" then Kossuth was in arms in Hungary, and the patriotism of Bem and Dembinsky became immortal, while the name of Georgei became infamous for his treachery. When these great events were taking place in Europe, that letter was written in opposition to "Nativeism," and to bringing religion into party politics.

The revolution of 1848 in Europe is well known, and the fact that the Pope at first took a decided stand for more liberal principles; that he afterwards receded to his former position is also true, and it was generally believed that he was turned from his position in favor of constitntional government by Austrian bayonets. The Republican papers, who circulated those garbled extracts, that did not give a fair and full view of the matter, owe it to me to make a proper correction. In the manner of its publication and use it was a fraud, and in many districts defeated my delegates.

I shall support Republican principles, and to the extent of my ability labor for the success of Grant and Colfax, and other Republican candidates as heretofore.

I am, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
THOS. HOWARD.

Mr. Smith, at the conclusion of the reading, moved that General Negley be nominated by acclamation. It was suggested, however, that action be deferred until the Committee on Resolutions had reported.

The Chairman of the Committee on Credentials reported that inasmuch as Mr. Howard's name had been withdrawn from the Convention, the Committee had decided to admit both sets of delegates from the contested districts.

It was moved that the report of the Committee be accepted, and after some discussion, the motion prevailed.

Mr. Smith withdrew his motion, and announced that, as the delegates contesting the seats of himself and colleague for Mt. Washington were admitted, he withdrew from the Convention.

Col. J. A. Stewart then moved that Gen. Negley be nominated by acclamation. Carried unanimously.

On motion, a committee, consisting of C. B. M. Smith, John O'Neil, and W. H. Guy, was appointed to notify Gen. Negley of his nomination.

RESOLUTIONS.

Joseph Dilworth, from the Committee on Resolutions, presented the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Union Republican party of Allegheny county, ever true to liberty and loyalty, heartily endorse the declaration of principles adopted by the National Convention in the city of Chicago on the 20th of May, 1868.

Resolved, That in General Ulysses S. Grant, the great soldier, and Schuyler Colfax, the great and popular statesman, we have men able and worthy to govern the country they so earnestly labored to save; their stainless records, tried patriotism and devotion to justice and liberty, are a sufficient guarantee that, under their administration, our beloved country will be fully restored to peace and prosperity.

Resolved, That we pledge to our candidates, local, State and national, our earnest and energetic support.

Resolved, That Gen. J. K. Moorhead has our full and hearty thanks for his long and faithful service as our Representative in Congress.

The Chairman then announced the following as the Committee to confer with the Executive Committee: W. B. Negley, J. H. Stewart and George H. Anderson.

GEN. NEGLEY'S ADDRESS.

General Negley was now conducted into the room and introduced by Mr. Smith to the Convention. He was received with great applause, and three cheers were called for and given with a will.

The Chairman presented the nominee to the Convention and Gen. Negley spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Convention: To be the recipient of your personal respect and the choice of the Convention as the successor of our worthy Representative, Hon. J. K. Moorhead, is an honor worthy of the proudest ambition, and of years of political toil—it is one which commands my sincere gratitude and high appreciation of the responsibility involved in the acceptance of the nomination. I am pleased to say that I owe this enviable distinction to no sacrifice of party interests or the bartering away of the dignity of the position by pledges or unmanly acts.

I receive it rather as the unmistakable evidence of the patriotic impulses of the people and their willingness to repose confidence in those who went forth to battle for the Union—human rights and universal liberty.

Standing upon the summit of manhoods, expectation, I feel capable of realizing the full breadth of the duties imposed upon a member from this populous district, combining within its limits wonderful elements of prosperity, skill, enterprise and civilization.

Be assured, gentlemen, that if elected it shall be the most determined purpose of my life to execute the trust with fidelity, unbiased by party prejudice or individual selfishness.

Having submitted patiently to greater misrepresentations than commonly falls to the lot of a candidate for public favor, I can conscientiously say that I feel enmity towards none, but will cheerfully offer the hand of friendship to every man who exercised his legitimate right of opposing me in the interest of another. My chief regret lies in my inability to repay the courtesies of the press, the warm interest exhibited in my behalf by the German, Welsh and Irish citizens, the good will expressed by many who differ with me in political sentiment, and finally to the material aid extended to me by the leading members of our party.

As my political views are summed up in the resolutions passed in the Chicago Convention, it is only necessary for me to add that I will fall into the ranks and follow the world's admired hero, Grant, and the scholarly Colfax, to victory. [Applause.]

On motion adjourned.

THE COUNTY CONVENTION.

The delegates elected in the various districts of the county (172 in number) to nominate candidates for the Legislature and for county offices, met in the Quarter Sessions room of the Court House, at ten o'clock. In order to keep out "outsiders," and leave the delegates as free as possible from annoyance, the roll of districts was called and those admitted who presented credentials, officers of the County Executive Committee officiating in carrying out the arrangements.

After the roll had been called, and all the delegates admitted within the bar, Jacob H. Miller, Esq., chairman of the County Executive Committee, called the Convention to order and the following announced as the list of delegates:

The selection of permanent chairman now being in order, Thomas Ewing, Esq., of Second ward, city, and Col. E. J. Allen, of Braddocks, were placed in nomination. The Convention by a viva voce vote selected Mr. Ewing, who received 109 votes, Col. Allen 59.

Mr. Ewing was conducted to the chair and delivered a brief address, thanking the Convention for the honor conferred, and referring to the political situation.

On motion of Mr. Thomas W. Davis, Second ward, city, Messrs. J. T. Dickson, Pitt, George Y. McKee, North Fayette, and James P. Brown, East Birmingham, were chosen Vice Presidents.

Mr. J. M. Brush, Sixth ward, city, moved the selection of D. B. Ferguson, Mt. Washington, David Aiken, jr, Liberty, Ralph J. Richardson, Fifth ward, city, and Thomas W. Davis, Second ward, city, as Secretaries.

Mr. S. W. Reynolds, Lawrenceville, moved the selection of Messrs. J. S. Ferguson, Bellvue, W. B. Hunter, Second ward, city, William Tate, jr., Second ward, Allegheny, and Dr. J. Vankirk, of Elizabeth, as Secretaries.

On motion, the eight delegates named were designated as the Secretaries of the Convention.

M. K. Moorhead, Esq., Seventh ward, city, moved the appointment of a Committee on Contested Seats, from the Sixth ward, city, Pitt and Wilkins townships and Temperanceville borough. Carried.

The Chairman announced as the Committee Messrs. M. K. Moorhead, S. J. Wainwright, Lawrenceville, Abdiel McClure, Mifflin, Dr. J. H. Roberts, South Pittsburgh, and David Beck, Fifth ward, city.

Mr. John McDonald, of Allegheny city, moved the appointment of a Committee on Resolutions, and the Chairman appointed as the Committee Messrs. John McDonald, R. P. Nevin, Sewickley, W. J. Snodgrass, Mifflin, Dr. John E. Shaffer, Elizabeth, Col. E. J. Allen, Braddocks.

Mr. J. M. Brush presented a communication from the State Executive Committee, relative to the appointment of County Committees to conduct the coming campaign, urging the importance of the selection of active men, and the selection of one member of the Committee from each district, the delegates in the Convention now assembled to make selection for their districts.

The Chairman read a communication from the County Committee on the subject, recommending the selection of a Committee of forty, without power to add to their number.

After a variety of motions, and considerable discussion, a Committee of three, consisting of Messrs. T. J. Craig, of Oakland, H. Lee, of Scott, and Hugh McNeill, of Allegheny, were appointed to confer on the subject with similar Committees from the Congressional Conventions of the 22d and 23d districts. The papers presented were referred to this Committee.

On motion the Convention proceeded to suggest persons for nomination to the various offices, in the following order:

For District Attorney—W. C. Moreland, General A. L. Pearson, R. B. Parkinson. The name of Colonel L. B. Duff was presented, but withdrawn.

Assistant District Attorney—J. B. Flack, John W. Riddell.

State Senate—Hon. James L. Graham. No other nomination being made, Mr. Graham was declared the unanimous choice of the Convention.

Assembly—George Wilson, Colonel Geo. F. Morgan, W. R. Ford, Josiah W. Ells, John M. Killin, D. R. Coon, J. J. Covert, Alexander Chambers, James Taylor, J. D. Ramsey, A. S. M. Morgan, and Thos. M. Howe, Pittsburgh; George R. Riddle, David L. Smith, Captain Thos. S. Sloan, Captain J. R. Oxley, Guyan M. Irwin, Esq., William M. Claney, Allegheny; D. N. White, Sewickley; Hans B. Herron, Hampton; Wm. Peters, C. C. Smith, Ross; Vincent Miller, South Fayette; Miles S. Humphreys, South Pittsburgh; Wm. Espy, Scott; Alexander Millar, McKeesport; Samuel Kerr, Elizabeth.

County Commissioner.—Jonathan Neely, Mt. Washington; James McGunnigle, Chartiers; Samuel Milliken, McKeesport; Phillip Hoerr, Lower St. Clair; Andrew Morton, Sharpsburg; Joseph L. Duff, Chartiers; W. H. Irwin, Liberty.

County Controller.—Henry Lambert. No other nomination being made, Mr. Lambert was declared the unanimous choice of the Convention.

County Surveyor.—R. L. McCulley, Sigismond Leow.

County Home Director.—August Ammon, East Birmingham; J. G. Murray, Upper St. Clair; G. Y. Coulter, South Fayette; Moses Chess, Chartiers; Dr. J. B. McGrew, Jacob Keil, Sharpsburg.

Printed slips of the nominations were directed to be furnished for the convenience of delegates.

It being suggested that Hon. Galusha A. Grow was in the Convention, calls were made on him for an address, but it was concluded to take a recess, and if desirable Mr. Grow would address the Convention at the afternoon session.

The Convention then took a recess till half-past one o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled and was called to order at two o'clock.

Hon. Galusha A. Grow was introduced and delivered a short, stirring speech, urging as a requisite for success at the fall elections thorough organization in every school district.

M. K. Moorhead, Esq., Chairman of the Committee on contested Seats, presented a report, as follows: Jared M. Brush, Sixth ward, first precinct, entitled to two votes; Sixth ward, second precinct, Henry Wilson and William Glenn, entitled to seats; Wilkins township, W. A. Shaw and John B. McFarland, entitled to seats; Temperanceville, Wm. C. Taylor and Philip Weaver, entitled to seats; Pitt township, Robert Arthurs and Thomas Dickson, entitled to seats.

The report was received and on a motion to adopt, Mr. S. W. Reynolds, of Lawrenceville, moved to amend, by allowing Mr. Brush, from the Sixth ward, but one vote. Mr. R. said, although Mr. Brush had been fairly and squarely elected a delegate, his colleague tied with the opposition. He could see no fairness in allowing Mr. Brush two votes.

Mr. Moorhead, chairman of the Committee, thought the Sixth ward certainly entitled to full representation, and it was in this view that the Committee had decided to recommend that Mr. Brush have two votes. There being a tie vote between Mr. B's colleague and the candidate for delegate running against him, the Committee could not recommend the admission of either, and hence had reported against both. Unless Mr. Brush was allowed to cast two votes, the Sixth ward would not be fully represented.

Mr. Brush strongly urged his right to cast two votes, and did not do so, he said, from individual motive, but in justice to the Sixth ward, the only ward in the city which "could hold the Bull Run district level." He had attended County Conventions as a Republican until he had grown grey, and this was the first time he had heard the claim set up that a delegate had not a right to cast two votes in representing his district.

Mr. Reynolds said he had attended the election in the Sixth ward, and had never worked harder at an election in his life. He opposed Mr. Brush for delegate, but he (Mr. R.) was successful. Mr. Hunnicutt, Mr. Brush's colleague, however, had been tied. Now, to allow Mr. Brush to cast two votes, and thus deprive the opposition of the advantage of having tied Mr. Hunnicutt, would be manifestly unjust.

After some further remarks, Mr. Reynold's amendment was agreed to, and the report as amended adopted.

Mr. R. P. Nevin, of Sewickley, moved that the colleagues of absent delegates be allowed to cast two votes.

Mr. Brown, of East Birmingham, moved to amend, by requiring delegates, before being allowed to cast two votes, to show authority for casting a vote of their colleagues.

The amendment was rejected, and Mr. Nevin's motion adopted.

The Convention was about to proceed to mark for candidates when the following withdrawals were announced. For Assembly, Gen. Thomas M. Howe, by D. Aiken, Jr., who said he was authorized; for County Commissioner, W. H. Irwin, Libertp; J. L. Duff, Chartiers township; for County Surveyor, Sigismund Leow; for Director of County Home, Moses Chess and Jacob Keil.

R. L. McCully being the only one suggested for County Surveyor, after the withdrawal of Mr. Leow, he was nominated by acclamation.

The Convention then proceeded to mark for the remaining candidates. The first ballot resulted as follows:

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

Gen. A. L. Pearson	84	R. B. Parkinson	5
W. C. Moreland	82

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

John W. Riddell	72	J. B. Flack	97*

ASSEMBLY.

Col. G. F. Morgan	45	Guyan M. Irwin	43
George Wilson	118*	David N. White	36
Wm. R. Ford	53	Wm. M. Claney	1
Josiah W. Ells	16	Hans B. Herron	38
David R. Coon	51	Wm. Peters	11
J. J. Covert	28	C. C. Smith	12
Alex. Chambers	13	Vincent Miller	87*
James M. Taylor	46	M. S. Humphreys	89*
David L. Smith	64	Wm. Espy	43
George R. Riddle	80	Alex. Miller	31
Thomas S. Sloan	28	Samuel Kerr	81
J. R. Oxley	11	A. S. M. Morgan	—

COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

Jonathan Neely	88*	Phillip Hoerr	40
James McGunnigle	21	Andrew Morton	1
Samuel Milliken	21

COUNTY HOME DIRECTOR.

J. G. Murray	54	Dr. J. B. McGrew	40
G. Y. Coulter	36	August Ammon	13

Following the announcement of the votes given for Messrs. Pearson and Moreland, for District Attorney, great excitement prevailed, the partizans of each, in the lobby, indulging in groans and cheers alternately, being evidently under the impression that General Pearson was the nominee. The excitement subsiding sufficiently, the chairman stated Mr. Parkinson had received five votes, and that there was no choice, eighty-six votes being necessary to nominate. The partizans then discovered there was no occasion for their exciting demonstration.

J. B. Flack was announced as the nominee for Assistant District Attorney.

For Assembly, George Wilson, city, Vincent Miller, South Fayette, and Miles S. Humphreys, South Pittsburgh, were declared nominated, leaving three yet to nominate.

For County Commissioner Jonathan Neely was declared the choice of the Convention.

For County Home Director there was no choice.

SECOND BALLOT.

There being no choice for District Attorney, and only three Assemblymen having been nominated, a second ballot was ordered.

Previous to the calling of the roll a motion prevailed to strike from the list of candidates the names of all whose vote was less than thirty-five.

Col. E. J. Allen obtained the floor and stated that he had been authorized by Mr. Parkinson to withdraw his name from before the Convention as a candidate for District Attorney, and moreover hoped his friends would work zealously to secure the nomination of Major General Pearson. This announcement was received by the latter's friends with much enthusiasm.

The contest on the second ballot was one of the warmest we have ever noticed, the fight being between Messrs. Moreland and Pearson, rather than for any of the Assembly aspirants. At times it was found impossible for the Chair to preserve order, and a committee had to be appointed to eject "outsiders" who had ventured within the bar to electioneer among the delegates. The second ballot resulted as follows:

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

Gen. A. L. Pearson	84*	W. C. Moreland	83

ASSEMBLY.

Geo. F. Morgan	62	G. R. Riddle	67
David R. Coon	62	Guy M. Irwin	31
James Taylor	97*	D. N. White	33
D. L. Smith	47	Capt. Sam. Kerr	94*

COUNTY POOR DIRECTOR.

J. G. Murray	61*	Dr. J. B. McGrew	14
G. Y. Coulter	16	August Ammon	4

The announcement of Gen. Pearson's nomination was greeted with the wildest applause and most disorderly enthusiasm. He was taken prisoner in the rotunda and fairly carried into the Convention and placed on a chair for a speech, and greeted with cheer after cheer. He modestly thanked his friends for the high honor conferred on him in the nomination, and refused to indulge in a speech. Mr. Moreland and his friends, although disappointed at the result, were among the first to promise hearty and zealous support to the successful nominee.

THIRD BALLOT.

There being still another candidate to be chosen for Assembly, various motions were made, withdrawn, ruled out and otherwise disposed of which had in view the nomination of one of the unsuccessful candidates. By order of the Chair a third ballot was taken, the Convention ruling out all but the five candidates standing highest on the list. The hour being late (7 o'clock, p. m.) many of the delegates had retired, which accounts for the light vote shown in the following result of the third ballot:

G. F. Morgan	57	G. R. Riddle	21
D. L. Smith	49	D. R. Coon	8
D. N. White	—

FOURTH BALLOT.

There still being no choice, a motion was carried to narrow the contest down to the two highest on the list, and a fourth ballot was taken with the following result:

G. F. Morgan*	66	D. L. Smith	40

Col. Morgan was declared the sixth nominee by the chair, an announcement which occasioned much hearty cheering.

RESOLUTIONS.

Col. E. J. Allen read the following report from the Committee on Resolutions:

Resolved, That we accept the platform of principles as laid down by the Union National Convention at Chicago, as the best and truest system upon which this government can be administered.

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the nomination of Ulysses S. Grant, the world's chief captain, and Schuyler Colfax, the favorite among statesmen, whose bright and stainless record, true and sturdy patriotism, and unselfish devotion to our country in the past and present give assurance of unity, peace and prosperity to the future of our beloved Union under their administration.

Resolved, That the claims of Western Pennsylvania in the United States Senate have not been recognized as they are entitled to be, and the members of the Legislature at Harrisburg are instructed to respect the claims of this section and to use all their influence (which ought to be of controlling force,) to see them suitably sustained.

Resolved, That the prosperity of Allegheny county has been retarded by the want of a sufficient outlet to the seaboard, and in view of the endeavors of a gigantic monopoly to crush out all efforts in this direction, our members at Harrisburg are hereby instructed to use all their influence to aid the passage of such measures as will advance the completion of the Connellsville and Allegheny Valley roads.

Resolved, That we recognize the fact that the war is not yet fought through, and that it is incumbent upon us at the ballot box to maintain the measures which were gained by the bayonet, and which have been imperilled by the bad faith of those whom the country trusted.

Resolved, That the country is not forgetful of the soldiers whose courage and patriotism gave peace and prosperity to the land, and we here record our gratitude to the living and the dead.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted, after which the Convention adjourned sine die.

The Convention was harmonious, enthusiastic and orderly, and was presided over with marked ability by Mr. Ewing, a gentleman who found himself fully equal to the necessities and emergencies of the occasion.

TWENTY-THIRD DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The delegates elected Saturday in the several precincts of Allegheny county, in the Twenty-third Congressional District assembled in Convention yesterday, (Tuesday,) the 2d inst., in the Common Council chamber of Allegheny city, for the purpose of appointing conferees to meet with conferees from Armstrong and Butler counties to nominate a candidate for Congress.

The Convention was organized by the election of Theodore H. Nevin as chairman, and Messrs. James McBrier and John G. Brown as Secretaries.

The credentials of delegates were then called for and handed in, the districts being fully represented.

On motion, a committee of five was appointed to prepare resolutions.

On motion, Messrs. T. F. Dale, H. S. Fleming and S. H. Geyer were appointed conferees and instructed to secure, if possible, the nomination of Hon. Thomas Williams.

The Committee on Resolutions then submitted their report.

The resolutions endorsed the course of Hon. Thomas Williams, and urged his renomination, and also endorsed the action of the Chicago Convention.

The report was adopted, after which the Convention adjourned.
